About us

The unit is part of the Directorate "Sustainable Finance, Investment and Jobs; Economy that works for the People", which brings a solid economic backbone on Sustainable Finance to the work of the Directorate General, in line with the increasing priority for job creation and sustainable investments in the context of the Global Gateway strategy.

The Sustainable Finance Policy Unit – Unit E4, contributes to the topical challenges of our times, delivering on real impact initiatives on sustainable finance to support low- and middle-¬income countries to finance their green transition toward a sustainable growth. This includes providing strategic and policy analyses on sustainable finance in low- and middle-income countries and contributing to the design of quality interventions in the field of sustainable finance.

The Sustainable finance policy unit also contributes to bring Global Gateway from start-up to scale-up by mobilising private capital from institutional investors towards high quality sustainable infrastructure investments in low- and middle-income countries.

About the role

We offer an interesting and challenging position as policy officer for sustainable finance and innovative financing solutions in a friendly, positive and exciting working environment.

You will:

• Design and formulate policy proposals and financial engineering solutions to mobilise private capital flows at scale to low- and middle-income countries for their sustainable growth. This notably includes promoting the use of innovative sustainable financial structures (incl. funds) and instruments (e.g. green bonds but also social and SDG bonds);

• Provide strategic analyses and policy development activities on sustainable finance;

• Contribute to the successful deployment of the Global Green Bond Initiative (GGBI) and to the effort of the unit in promoting the use of green bonds towards our partner countries in the context of GGBI;

• Contribute to the successful deployment of the Sustainable Finance Advisory Hub in promoting a conducive environment for sustainable finance;

• Contribute to promote enhanced international coordination on sustainable finance and participate to international fora on sustainable finance, as well as engage in thematic dialogue with various stakeholders;

• Represent the Commission (under the supervision of an official) in meetings/negotiations with other EU institutions, international organisations, partner countries, public/private organisations and civil society concerning issues relevant to the work of the unit.

The work is novel, intellectually challenging and interactive, involving frequent contacts with other DGs, institutional investors, and development finance institutions notably. We offer a flat organisational structure and a friendly and open-minded working atmosphere in a team-oriented environment.

Qualifications, experience and skills

We look for a motivated and dynamic policy officer with a solid financial background and expertise who is both a strong team player and capable of working independently. The candidate should have a sound understanding of financial markets, EU financial legislation applicable to institutional investors and the EU sustainable finance framework. Knowledge of financial markets and sustainable finance polices in Latin America, and the Caribbean region is an advantage. Experience in financial engineering and/or fund structuring is an asset.

The candidate should have a proven ability to apply state of the art financial and economic analyses. Excellent analytical skills, written and oral communication skills and the ability to work under tight deadlines are of crucial importance. The candidate should moreover have a good sense of initiative and solid organisation and ability to cope with peaks of work. An excellent command of English and Spanish is necessary. Good knowledge of French is an asset.
