STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission often recruits non-permanent staff. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

WE ARE

The Joint Research Centre provides independent, evidence-based knowledge and science, supporting EU policies to positively impact society.

The vacancy is in Directorate JRC.A - Strategy and impact - its mission is to steer the JRC strategic repositioning with the European Commission, and its engagement with partner DGs, but also with the member countries, international partners and the other stakeholders. The Directorate focuses on the implementation of this strategy in order to lever increased JRC impact through reporting and evaluation, resource planning and inter-institutional activity. The Directorate provides support and advice in terms of legal affairs and hosts the corporate Central IP Service. The Directorate also hosts the JRC HR Correspondent team, responsible for establishing an HR strategy directly supporting the JRC strategy. The Directorate also steers activities aiming to improve the efficiency, effectiveness, quality and impact of the organisation.

Specifically, the vacancy is in JRC.A.1 - Human Resources and Budget - its mission is to propose and implement a strategic Annual and multi-annual planning of the overall JRC budget, for human resources as well as for general, scientific and ICT infrastructure.

The unit is preparing the yearly draft budget, the annual budget allocation for the JRC and the financing decisions in coordination with DG Budget. The unit is responsible for the planning of the human resources, the validation of recruitments and the reporting on HR issues. It also coordinates internally and with DG BUDG all major construction files that are subject to a building procedure.

Unit A.1 with the HR Correspondent Team supports JRC’s management in defining an HR strategy, supporting staff career development efforts, contributing to local talent management initiatives, supervising efficient and effective HR administration by liaising with the “HR for JRC” Unit (at DG HR) and promoting staff well-being, diversity, team-building and learning initiatives across the organisation.

WE PROPOSE

The Human Resources and Budget Unit of DG JRC proposes an interesting and challenging position as Budget Officer. This job provides the unique opportunity to participate directly in the preparation of the multi-annual programmes (Multi-annual Financial Framework) and to be involved in the preparation of annual budget discussion in EP and Council.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a highly motivated, proactive, reliable, flexible, stress-resistant, dynamic colleague with a positive attitude, a high sense of responsibility, an eye for detail, and the ability to complete tasks within tight deadlines.

The successful candidate will also need to demonstrate very good writing skills, excellent (C2 level) command of English is essential as well as very good command of another EU official language.

Previous experience in dealing with the legislative/budget process with the Council and the European Parliament as well as with Member States is essential.

A previous experience in conceptualising complex issues and being able to interact with internal and external stakeholders and all levels of hierarchy will be an advantage.

Experience with the European budget/funding especially in the research programmes of the Commission as well as with the multiannual funding schemes is desired.

A background in Economics or Public finances would be an advantage.
