STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission often recruits non-permanent staff. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b - Assistant

Grade: AST 1-3

Publication deadline: 23.02.24 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

The Publications Office of the European Union is the official provider of publishing services to all EU institutions, bodies, and agencies. As such, it is the central point of access to EU law, and also to publications, data, research results, procurement notices and other official information. The Publications Office therefore plays a central role in informing the public about what the EU does and means for them, and in unlocking the power of data.

Its mission is to support EU policies as a centre of excellence for information, data and knowledge management, and to ensure that this broad range of information is available to the public as accessible and reusable data to facilitate transparency, economic activity and the diffusion of knowledge.

The Publications Office publishes in all the official languages of the European Union and continuously adapts its services to a rapidly evolving technological environment (e.g. data services, cloud computing, machine learning and artificial intelligence).

Unit B4 Quality Control aims to deliver language-quality services to a wide range of EU institutions and agencies.

The Unit prepares, edits and verifies both legal texts and general publications in all EU official languages, helping to make priority EU policies fit for purpose and better able to engage the public. The Unit works in tandem with authors of general publications to ensure their message is clear and that the content is relevant to the target audience. To this end, it analyses the content and suggests improvements before publications are translated into other languages.

When externalising language-editing tasks, the Unit maintains a linguistic quality-assurance framework to ensure the quality of the deliverables.

The Unit also contributes to the development of linguistic reference tools such as the Interinstitutional Style Guide by providing linguistic expertise throughout interinstitutional language groups. It deploys automated tools that standardise texts by removing errors and inconsistencies found in the structure and factual references that reduce machine readability, thereby ensuring identical content across all language versions.

The unit is continuously seeking to improve its working methods and provide upstream quality feedback.

WE PROPOSE

Unit B.4 is seeking to hire 2 English-language proofreaders (M/F) responsible for:

- proofreading, from the point of view of language and typography, of all types of publications produced by the Publications Office, including legislative texts adopted by the institutions;
- subsequent reading of proofs and delivery of the "pass-for-print";
- checking compliance of the texts with the rules established in the Interinstitutional Style Guide;
- where applicable, checking the consistency of translations with the source language;
- contributing to the development of language-editing tools and language-quality services.

The work is performed primarily on-screen.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a proofreader (M/F) with an excellent knowledge of the English language.

The candidate is expected to have an excellent knowledge of the current office automation tools (Word, Excel, Outlook, Acrobat pro, etc.), as well as the capacity, after internal training, to use automated workflow systems and tools specific to publishing.

A relevant experience in the publishing domain – in particular in editorial and proofreading work – is essential.

A high sense of responsibility and the capacity to respect strict deadlines are basic requirements for this job.

The language teams within the unit have a high degree of autonomy in their internal organisation and to make this function well, teamwork and a strong spirit of collaboration are essential.

The main working languages of the unit are English and French.
