STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission often recruits non-permanent staff. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

DG BUDG of the European Commission

Selection reference: BUDG/COM/2024/553

Domain*: Budget and Finance - Economics/Finance/Statistics

Where: Unit B2 – Revenue policy and new own resources, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b/2d - Assistant

Grade: AST 1- AST 3

Publication deadline: 12.04.2024 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

DG BUDGET is responsible for managing the budget of the European Union. This includes proposing and implementing the financial framework, as well as collecting the resources that EU countries have agreed to contribute.

Within DG BUDGET, Directorate B plays a central role as it is responsible for the design and implementation of the revenue side and the long-term spending priorities of the EU budget (Multiannual Financial Framework).

In Directorate B, unit B2 deals with revenue aspects. The mission of the unit is to develop the revenue policy in line with EU policy priorities and developments on the expenditure side of the EU budget. Our unit is responsible for the analytical and conceptual work on EU budget revenue including new own resources, and revenue forecasts. It is responsible for the Own Resources legislation, which includes interactions with other services in the Commission, with the Council and Parliament. The unit oversees the financial actions following the control of the statistical own resources performed by Eurostat.

WE PROPOSE

Unit B.2 of DG BUDG is seeking to hire one Economic and Policy Assistant.

An interesting position providing financial and statistical support to the unit. The position includes the management of financial and accounting actions for some own resources (GNI and plastic own resources).

The post will also include statistical support to the unit – support to the annual forecasting exercise of own resources and any other request to extract data and calculation of revenues.

Finally, the person will coordinate inputs for reports for the Directorate. He will work closely with the director and his team.

The unit offers an open and friendly working environment.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for an Economic and Policy Assistant.

The ideal profile for the job is a competent and motivated colleague with organisational skills, a good sense of initiative and the ability to work in a team. She/he should be well organised, have good IT and quantitative skills. Familiarity with the revenue side of the EU budget, EC financial procedures and experience with Microsoft Excel would be an asset. Given the context of the work, an experience in a policy job would also be an asset. The job requires a good understanding of the political context of the work, a high team spirit, as well as an aptitude for coordination. Our working languages are English and French.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV      2. motivation letter      3. duly filled in application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to BUDG-MBX-B02@ec.europa.eu indicating the selection reference BUDG/COM/2024/553 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.
