STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission often recruits non-permanent staff. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Administrator

Directorate-General for Energy (DG ENER) of the European Commission

Selection reference: ENER/COM/2024/592

Domain: European Public Administration

Where: DG ENER Unit A.4 - „Chief Economist“, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b/2d - Administrator

Grade: AD 5-7

Publication deadline: 09.04.2024 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

The Directorate-General for Energy (DG ENER) is working to accelerate Europe's clean and just energy transition to be the first climate-neutral continent by 2050. We set out policies to develop an innovative, resilient and integrated energy system, which delivers a continuous supply of affordable, secure, reliable and clean energy to its citizens and businesses in line with the European Green Deal. We strive to remove barriers for energy transition and stimulate energy solutions, which will drive the shift to climate neutrality whilst promoting Europe's sustainable growth and job creation. The transition will build on consumer participation and market driven investments in energy efficiency and renewable energy technologies to boost EU's global leadership while improving energy security and resilience, reducing the fossil fuels' import dependency and import bills, strengthen our energy resilience and independence.

Within Directorate A 'Energy Policy: Strategy and Coordination', unit ENER.A.4 "Chief Economist" supports DG Energy policy development regarding energy markets, energy efficiency, clean energy and energy investment policy proposals by gathering market, investment and other data and undertaking economic analysis including energy projections. The analysis supports policy and financial programme evaluations and impact assessments as well as providing the broad evidence base for explaining and defending all aspects of EU energy policy.

WE PROPOSE

Unit ENER.A.4 is proposing a challenging and interesting position of the energy market analyst contributing to the economic and financial underpinnings of the EU energy policy. S/he will provide expertise on statistical data related to energy markets, prepare reports, and pilot studies supporting the development of the EU energy policy. S/he will contribute to briefings, papers, reports, evaluations and impact assessments, often in coordination with policy units. S/he will help meet the DG ENER objectives in full alignment with the political priorities of the Commission in a changing global energy context, including the 2040 Climate and Energy Plan, the European Green Deal, and increasing focus on competitiveness and need to create an attractive investment framework for their delivery.
