

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive working place.

WE OFFER ATTRACTIVE WORKING CONDITIONS AND MUCH MORE:

- Interesting and challenging positions with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies over your whole career;
- Opportunities to try several areas of work throughout your career;
- Flexible working conditions and the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance;
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive sickness, accident and pension schemes;
- Multilingual schools for your kids;
- We are also proud to be an equal opportunity employer and promote diversity and inclusion.

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds:

We are not only recruiting political scientists and lawyers but also looking for all kinds of profiles, including natural scientists, linguists and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission often recruits non-permanent staff. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Case Handler Officer

Trade Defence Instruments (TDI)

DG TRADE of the European Commission

Selection reference: TRADE/COM/2024/549

Domain: External Relations

Where: Unit TRADE.G.3.002- "Investigations II Anti-circumventions", Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b - Administrator

Grade: AD5-AD6-AD7

Publication deadline: 02.05.2024 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

DG TRADE has the task of conducting EU trade policy, one of the exclusive competences of the EU. Trade policy plays a critical role in foreign policy as the EU tries to meet the challenges of globalisation. Unit G.3 is responsible for Trade Defence Instruments: Investigations II (Anti-dumping, anti-subsidies) and anti-circumvention policy.

WE PROPOSE

We are looking for an official interested in trade defence policy to join an energetic, dynamic and enthusiastic unit of 29 people, which deals with trade defence investigations, anti-circumvention policy and rules of origin issues in the area of trade defence. He/she will undertake interesting and challenging investigations concerning dumped and/or subsidised imports from companies in countries outside the EU and also investigations concerning the impact of these imports on the Union industry and wider Union interest questions. The job requires extensive contacts with the exporters and their advisers, as well as with various EU industries and users. DG TRADE provides a two week introduction course on Trade Defence Instruments for new officials.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for an investigator to handle trade defence cases, in particular anti-dumping and anti-subsidy investigations. The person chosen will ideally have a background in economics, law, accounting or auditing, as well as in-depth knowledge and/or experience of China and experience with IT tools such as MS Excel. Previous experience in the field of trade defence and knowledge about anti-circumvention rules and rules of origin would be an important asset. She/he will have good drafting skills (mainly in English) and have some administrative experience. Other important requirements are a sense of initiative, the ability to work under pressure, an eye for detail and the availability for travelling on missions both within and outside the EU (including some long missions). He or she will be able to work autonomously, but also contribute constructively to team work. Respect of deadlines and confidentiality are crucial. A very good knowledge of English is essential; knowledge of Chinese (mandarin) would be an important asset.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

➤ What about the selection steps?

The post was published internally within the Commission, inter-institutionally, and brought to the attention of competition laureates.

In accordance with Article 29 of the Staff Regulations, applications from Commission officials, officials from other Institutions, and laureates of competitions have priority. Only in the case that no suitable candidate can be found from the afore-mentioned categories this vacancy notice is published and is open to other applicants².

The selection panel will choose a limited number of candidates for interview, based on the CV and motivation letter that they submitted. Due to the large volume of applications, we may receive, only candidates selected for the next step of the selection phase will be notified.

For operational reasons and in order to complete the selection procedure as quickly as possible in the interest of the candidates and of the institution, the selection procedure will be carried out in English and possibly in a second official language.

2. Recruitment

The candidate selected for recruitment will be requested to supply documentary evidence in support of the statements made in their application.

The successful candidate will be required to undergo a mandatory pre-recruitment medical check-up, carried out by the Commission.

➤ Type of contract and working conditions

The place of employment will be in Brussels.

In case the successful candidate is an external candidate, s/he will be engaged as a temporary agent under Article 2(b)/2(d) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, in function group AD.

The recruitment grade, as well as the step in that grade, will be defined on the basis of the duration of the candidates' previous appropriate professional experience, in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2013\)8970 laying down the criteria applicable to classification in step on engagement.

² Officials from the Commission or other Institutions are invited to use the standard channels (Sysper or inter-institutional vacancy portal).

The duration of the 1st contract will be of 1 to 3 years. The contract might then be extended only once for a maximum of 2 years and in the interest of service. The duration of the extension will be defined according to the General Implementation Rules in force at that moment, in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2013\)9049 on policies for the engagement and use of temporary agents.

All new staff have to successfully complete a 9-month probationary period.

The pay of staff members consists of a basic salary supplemented with specific allowances, including, where applicable, expatriation and family allowances. The provisions guiding the calculation of these allowances can be consulted in the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants. As a member of staff of the European institutions, your pay is subject to a tax raised by those institutions.

The European Commission applies a policy of equal opportunities and non-discrimination in accordance with Article 1d of the Staff Regulations.
