

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive working place.

WE OFFER ATTRACTIVE WORKING CONDITIONS AND MUCH MORE:

- Interesting and challenging positions with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies over your whole career;
- Opportunities to try several areas of work throughout your career;
- Flexible working conditions and the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance;
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive sickness, accident and pension schemes;
- Multilingual schools for your kids;
- We are also proud to be an equal opportunity employer and promote diversity and inclusion.

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds:

We are not only recruiting political scientists and lawyers but also looking for all kinds of profiles, including natural scientists, linguists and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission often recruits non-permanent staff. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

DG TRADE of the European Commission

Selection reference: TRADE/COM/2024/649

Domain: Communication

Where: Unit TRADE.R.3 – “Transparency, Civil Society and Communication”, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b/2d - Administrator

Grade: AD 5-7

Publication deadline: 23.04.2024 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

The Directorate-General for Trade defines, leads and implements the European Union's trade policy, which is an EU exclusive competence. Unit R3's role is to ensure transparency and communication on the EU's trade policy. We provide timely and easy-to-understand information about EU trade policy to the outside world and to colleagues in the DG, Representations and Delegations, and define and implement an active transparency policy, including by animating several civil society networks and groups and managing all Access to Documents requests for the DG.

The Unit is made up of 27 fun-loving colleagues with 12 different nationalities, who work in a very good team spirit. In 2024, the Unit has started to expand to host a revamped Briefing Cell, which will be in charge of writing high-quality briefings mainly for the Executive Vice-President, the Director-General, and other Commissioners when the need arises. The Cell will be made up of a Team Leader, 8 briefers and an administrative assistant.

WE PROPOSE

Our new colleague will coordinate, prepare and submit timely high-quality briefings for a defined part of EU trade policy. S/he will be assigned to (a) specific Directorate(s) in DG Trade and develop an in-depth understanding of its policy and work (including through regular contacts and participation to key meetings).

S/he will work directly with DG Trade senior and middle management as well as the Cabinet in order to understand their general briefing needs, receive a steer and prepare fit-for-purpose, tailor-made briefings. The position involves building a deep knowledge of trade policy in a highly visible, high-paced work environment and the ability to coordinate and draft high-quality briefings within clear deadlines while collaborating and creating synergies with the other sectors of the unit to ensure consistency with the overall narrative and political communication of DG TRADE. The main working language in the Unit is English. French and German are also used regularly.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a dynamic and motivated colleague with excellent written and oral communication skills in English at a level equivalent to that of a native speaker, with proven track record in drafting briefings and/ or speeches. The colleague will have a keen interest in keeping abreast of relevant political and policy developments within and beyond the Directorate-General, and in particular of the Directorate whose portfolio s/he follows.

S/he will have a political and strategic sense for developing the right key messages and narrative, the ability to work under tight deadlines and excellent coordination skills including experience in coordinating across different EU institutions or between different stakeholders on EU policy matters.

S/he will have strong interpersonal skills to liaise effectively with the Cabinet and senior management, with other parts of the Directorate-General and within the Unit, as well as a good degree of independence to steer and coordinate the briefings s/he is responsible for. We are also looking for an excellent team player.

A good use of German and/or French would be an asset.
