STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission often recruits non-permanent staff. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Directorate-General for Mobility and Transport (DG MOVE) of the European Commission

Selection reference: MOVE/COM/2024/865

Domain: Science and research

Where: DG MOVE Unit D1 – Maritime Transport and Logistics, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b - Administrator

Grade: AD 5-7

Publication deadline: 07/05/2024 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

The mission of Unit D.1, Maritime Transport and Logistics is to develop a well-functioning and open market for sustainable maritime transport services and to promote multimodal freight transport and digital technologies.

Our responsibilities include:

- Developing and implementing policies promoting the use of sustainable maritime fuels, including through the European Sustainable Shipping Forum (ESSF).
- Enforcing EU legislation on the freedom to provide maritime transport services; including via international trade negotiations.
- Promote intermodal transport and sustainable logistics and the use of electronic transport documents in all modes of transport.
- Develop a reference framework on carbon footprint measurement in multimodal chains.

The Unit currently consists of 19 persons, including 1 trainee.

WE PROPOSE

We propose an interesting and challenging job in a busy and dynamic unit with professional and friendly colleagues.

The position provides an opportunity to contribute to the green transition of the maritime transport and logistics, in the EU and globally. The job in principle involves work on sustainable shipping policies, including the implementation of new FuelEU Maritime Regulation (part of the Fit for 55 Package) in cooperation with Member States and the European Sustainable Shipping Forum. In addition, the post includes coordination of the maritime roundtable of the Renewable and Low-Carbon Fuels Value Chain Industrial Alliance and shipping related contributions to EU research agenda and sustainable finance policies.

(Selection reference MOVE/COM/2024/865)

The work will require daily cooperation with other DG MOVE units in the Maritime Directorate and beyond, as well as other DGs and the European Maritime Safety Agency. Frequent interactions with stakeholders in technical and policy dialogues, participation and speaking at external and internal events, drafting policy papers, legal texts and briefings are also part of the job. The tasks will include contract management.

WE LOOK FOR

Given the technical nature of the file, the suitable candidate should have a solid engineering background and extensive experience in different energy conversion systems and innovative technologies in maritime transport. She/He should have excellent drafting and communication skills combined with an ability to structure and present complex topics to different audiences. Experience in contract management, as well in organizing the work of expert groups and ability to engage with stakeholders is also essential.

The ideal candidate would have experience in interinstitutional negotiations and coordination of transport and energy policies. She/he would be familiar with EU research programs and sustainable finance principles.

We are looking for a team player with a strong sense of initiative, very good inter-personal skills and networking/negotiation capabilities. She/He should be able to work independently, also under time constraints and pressure.

A good knowledge of two EU official languages, one of which should be English, is required; good knowledge of French would be an advantage.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV      2. motivation letter      3. duly filled in application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to MOVE-D1-SECRETARIAT@ec.europa.eu indicating the selection reference MOVE/COM/2024/865 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.
