

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive working place.

WE OFFER ATTRACTIVE WORKING CONDITIONS AND MUCH MORE:

- Interesting and challenging positions with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies over your whole career;
- Opportunities to try several areas of work throughout your career;
- Flexible working conditions and the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance;
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive sickness, accident and pension schemes;
- Multilingual schools for your kids;
- We are also proud to be an equal opportunity employer and promote diversity and inclusion.

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds:

We are not only recruiting political scientists and lawyers but also looking for all kinds of profiles, including natural scientists, linguists and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission often recruits non-permanent staff. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

DG COMMUNICATION of the European Commission

Selection reference: COMM/COM/2024/1052

Domain : Communication

Where: COMM.DG.01.POOL, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b - Administrator

Grade: AD5-AD8

Publication deadline: 17/07/2024 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

As the corporate communication service under the responsibility of the President, DG Communication (DG COMM) promotes the political priorities of the Commission and contributes to bringing Europe closer to citizens. It keeps the Commission abreast of political developments and of trends in public opinion and the media and coordinates communication campaigns within the Commission. It takes a central role in the analysis and response to disinformation and information manipulation with regard to the EU.

Unit COMM.DG.01 supports the Director-General of DG Communication in the management of our human resources, our internal communication and in the area of data, information and knowledge management. Via its Pool Entity it also provides cross DG solutions, including hosting expert staff for the internal Task Force in charge of the response to disinformation.

WE PROPOSE

We propose the leadership position for a new team in charge of data monitoring and insight for tackling disinformation and information manipulation. The ideal candidate will also lead the work on assessing the impact of the strategic communication actions and reactions to disinformation and information manipulation.

This would include amongst other tasks:

- identify emerging trends and provide early warning of threats.
- understand how disinformation and information manipulation is distributed to key audiences and generate recommendations.
- provide support for developing and targeting messages.

The post offers the unique opportunity to contribute to shaping DG COMM's efforts in addressing disinformation and information manipulation on the EU by developing high quality methodologies for the analysis of huge data volumes.

WE LOOK FOR

We look for a highly motivated, dynamic, flexible and proactive colleague and true expert in the field.

She or he will:

- have strong expertise in the detection and analysis of disinformation and information manipulation (essential);
- have at least 5 years of practical experience - preferably in a European or multinational environment - in the analysis of information and data related to disinformation (essential);
- have experience in the creation of methodologies for data analysis (at least 2 years desirable);
- have the ability to work independently in a very structured way;
- have a strong interest and good overview of European policy areas and of the Commission's political and information environment;
- have the capacity to build, motivate and steer a small future team;
- have earlier experience in training others, preferably in a European or international context (desirable);
- be resilient to work under pressure and adapt to tight and changing deadlines (essential);
- have experience in coordinating complex projects or tasks (desirable);
- be a true team player who can work with staff at all levels, including briefing the senior management
- have the capacity to present complex information in an understandable way to non-expert audiences;
- have professional experience in social media activity of at least 2 years (desirable).

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?
