

MAKE A DIFFERENCE - JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive working place.

WE OFFER ATTRACTIVE WORKING CONDITIONS AND MUCH MORE:

- Interesting and challenging positions with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies over your whole career;
- Opportunities to try several areas of work throughout your career;
- Flexible working conditions and the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance;
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive sickness, accident and pension schemes;
- Multilingual schools for your kids;
- We are also proud to be an equal opportunity employer and promote diversity and inclusion.

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds:

We are not only recruiting political scientists and lawyers but also looking for all kinds of profiles, including natural scientists, linguists and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission often recruits non-permanent staff. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Planning and Programming Officer in DG HOME “Migration and Home Affairs” of the European Commission

Job title: Planning and Programming Officer

Domain: EU's internal and external security

Where: Unit E.1 – “Funds Coordination”, Brussels

Function Group: FG IV

Contract Type: 3b

Express your interest until: 12.08.2024- 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

DG Migration and Home Affairs (DG HOME) is in charge of the policy domain for asylum and migration, border management and internal security. The mission of our unit (HOME.E1) is to ensure that the Home Affairs Funds support the important, challenging and continuously evolving policy priorities in this domain and are implemented in respect of the principles of sound financial management.

We cooperate closely with other financial and policy units in DG HOME, decentralised agencies and Member States to ensure that our Funds deliver added value. Through our work, we support persons in need, have an impact on a peaceful coexistence between EU citizens and third-country nationals, help protecting EU external borders, and endeavor to make Europe a safer place. We create synergies with external and internal actors to strengthen partnerships and ensure that results are achieved, funds are spent in a proper manner, and processes are simplified as much as possible.

WE PROPOSE

A stimulating job in an inspiring and friendly team working in a fast-moving environment. You will in particular take part in the implementation and monitoring of the performance framework of the Home Affairs Funds, including for programmes relating to border management and visa policy. The job offers you a unique opportunity to participate in the evaluation and monitoring of the past and current Home Affairs Funds with the aim of identifying lessons learned to improve the next generation of Funds. You will be working in close cooperation with other colleagues across our directorate as well as with colleagues in the policy directorates of DG HOME and in other DGs.

WE LOOK FOR

You should enjoy taking on new challenges, finding creative solutions to complex problems, and being part of a dynamic team.

You should be able to work independently, take initiatives when appropriate, and have a keen understanding of the sensitive political issues at stake.

Knowledge with the performance framework for the EU budget, preferably in shared management, would be an asset.

You should have good analytical skills, including data analysis skills, and/or prior experience in budgetary management of EU funding instruments, preferably in shared management. Knowledge of Home Affairs Funds, the related policy areas (asylum and migration, border management, internal security) and/or Home Affairs decentralised agencies is an advantage.

You should be able to communicate technical issues to non-experts in a clear and concise manner both orally and in writing. The unit's working language is mainly English.

You should be able to coordinate and organise multiple complex workflows in parallel.

You should be flexible, service-minded, result-oriented and a real team player with an ability to build and maintain constructive working relationships with colleagues in DG HOME and other DGs as well as with counterparts in Member States and with other external stakeholders.
