We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Budget Officer

in DG BUDG of the European Commission

Job title: Budget Officer

Domain: Economy, Finance and Statistics

Where: Unit C4 - Revenue Collection and Recovery of Debts, Brussels

Function Group: FG IV

Contract Type: 3b

Express your interest until: 31.01.2025 - 18.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

Unit BUDG/C4 is the centre for revenue operations in the European Commission (other than “own resources”). The unit fulfils the requirements of the Financial Regulation for the recovery of Commission’s claims, cashing and accounting of payments, along with the financial management of competition fines and member states penalties. The unit exercises due diligence to ensure that the Union receives all its revenue and ensures that the Union’s rights are safeguarded. The unit is composed of 25 colleagues organised in three sectors:

- The revenue collection sector is structured in two teams responsible for income accounting and recovery by offsetting. Both teams are composed of three colleagues.
- The sector for fines, penalties and sanctions is responsible for their financial management and is composed of three colleagues.
- The dunning sector is responsible for the follow up of overdue recoveries. It is composed of eight colleagues.

Horizontal coordination of the unit is ensured by the Head of Unit, Deputy Head of Unit and a budget officer, supported by an administrative assistant.

WE PROPOSE

We offer you a job with varied and challenging tasks.

You will actively support the teams of the unit horizontally while at the same time developing your skills and gaining experience and knowledge on all activities inside the unit to build a good general understanding of the overall recovery processes. Your tasks will include optimising processes in view of maximising the benefits from new IT tools, in particular our new corporate accounting system SUMMA and M365, within and beyond the unit. Examples could include the optimisation of the revenue collection process under an accounting point of view, better exploitation of synergy between the teams, simplification of specific aspects of the recovery process also across Commission’s services, rationalisation of reporting activities within the unit.

This job requires cooperation, coordination and active communication with all unit members, assertiveness and diplomacy, in particular when dealing with other units in and / or departments beyond.

WE LOOK FOR

The ideal candidate should have a financial, accounting and/or business economics background or the ability to quickly understand the accounting, financial, legal and procedural aspects of the tasks of the unit. While technical expertise, including knowledge of the Commission financial and administrative procedures and IT tools would be a clear advantage, it can also be acquired on the job with training and coaching provided by the team members. It would, in any case, be helpful to have some financial background and familiarity in working with accounting documents.

The successful candidate is highly motivated and values teamwork, but can nevertheless work with a high degree of autonomy. (S)he has also good analytical skills to understand (financial) processes. We expect a fresh view and perspective on our processes and activities as a unit to positively contribute to the design of the recovery process. Therefore, the ability to think out of the box and the courage to propose new solutions will be appreciated.

We are looking for a new team member with an enquiring mind, open and communicative attitude and able to build bridges, also with other units and services. Excellent self-organisational skills, a marked sense of initiative and responsibility, and a good command of English and French, are also essential.
