We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden<sup>1</sup>. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

WE ARE

Eurostat, one of the Directorates-General of the European Commission, is the statistical office of the European Union. Eurostat's mission is to provide high quality statistics and data on Europe.

Eurostat co-ordinates statistical activities at Union level and more particularly inside the Commission.

Eurostat Unit F4 is responsible for statistics on living conditions, including income, consumption and social exclusion, as well as quality of life, health, time use, crime and gender-based violence. The unit coordinates annual and periodic household surveys on income and living conditions (European Statistics on Income and Living Conditions – EU-SILC), expenditures (Household Budget Survey – HBS), time use (Time Use Survey – TUS), health (European Health Interview Survey – EHIS) and gender-based violence (the EU survey on gender-based violence against women and other forms of inter-personal violence – EU-GBV).

WE PROPOSE

There is currently an open contract agent vacancy in unit F.4 – Income and living conditions, Quality of life. We offer a post of statistical officer to work in the EU Statistics on Income and Living Conditions (EU-SILC) team. The statistical officer will contribute to the compliance monitoring of EU-SILC data, to methodology development for new variables and indicators to fulfil EU policy needs as well as to the EU-SILC dissemination activities. The statistical official would also contribute to the other tasks in the team as legal or budgetary files, if needed.

The work involves frequent contacts with EU Member states and other Eurostat units.

The place of employment will be in Luxembourg.

WE LOOK FOR

---

We look for a dynamic and motivated colleague with a background in statistics, economy and/or socio-economic analysis, with good organisational and analytical skills and preferably a professional experience in social statistics/sample surveys (in particular on EU-SILC statistics). Commitment and a high sense of responsibility and a team spirit are expected. Open-mindedness and creativity are also very important skills for this post. Good methodological knowledge is required. Knowledge of the methodology of national accounts and/or some familiarity with statistical softwares (preferably SAS or R) would be an asset. Good communication and drafting skills in English are essential, and knowledge of other EU languages is valuable.

Specific conditions - qualifications & professional experience

- A level of education which corresponds to completed university studies of at least 3 years attested by a diploma in the field of statistics, economy, social science or other relevant field;
- At least one year of professional experience in the field of social statistics and/or sample surveys or other relevant field.
