We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Budget Officer

in DG BUDG of the European Commission

Job title: Budget Officer

Domain: Economics, Finance and Statistics

Where: Unit A5 – “Administration” Brussels

Function Group: FG IV

Contract Type: 3b

Express your interest until: 02/05/2025 – 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

DG BUDG is committed to offer equal opportunities, foster a rich, diverse and equal and inclusive working environment.

The mission of Unit A5 is to enable the Institution to have the necessary administrative budget to achieve its political priorities, while fully respecting budgetary principles and constraints. More specifically, the Unit is responsible for carrying out all the activities related to the budgetary appropriations of heading 7 European Public Administration of the multiannual financial framework (MFF), respecting the principle of sound financial management. In addition, the Unit consolidates the requests of the DGs and services and proposes, jointly with other central services, the allocation of all the human resources of the Commission for endorsement by the Corporate Management Board and for the decision of the College.

WE PROPOSE

Unit A5 of DG BUDG is seeking to hire a Contract Agent (FG IV) to work in a team of five colleagues dealing with all aspects of human resource allocation for the Commission. This involves building excellent relations with the other Commission DGs, and the Secretariat-General and DG HR.

All colleagues in the team have a portfolio of DGs to follow. Each team member is closely involved in assessing the staffing needs of these services, and the potential to allocate staff, from the available budgets (administration, research, EU programmes, etc).

The team plays a crucial role in the preparation of the Commission's proposal for the annual budget, as well as preparing the decisions of the College on staff allocation. The team are also involved in broader reflections on human resources, for instance in the context of the multi-annual financial framework, reviews of the organisational structure, and any potential enlargement.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a highly motivated team player, with good analytical and negotiation skills. It is essential to be able to communicate clearly orally and in writing. A good knowledge of EXCEL is required, and knowledge of the EU budget procedure, administrative expenditure and the human resource allocation process would be a distinct advantage. Excellent written and oral communication skills in English.
