

MAKE A DIFFERENCE - JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging positions with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

¹Please note that the list of underrepresented Member States may be subject to future amendment based on potential data changes over time.

International Relations Officer - Rapid Response Manager

Service for Foreign Policy Instruments (FPI) of the European Commission

Job title: International Relations Officer - Rapid Response Manager

Domain: External Relations

Where: Unit FPI.3 – “Rapid Response Europe, Asia & Americas”, Brussels

Function Group: FG IV

Contract Type: 3b

Express your interest until: 18/04/2025 - 12.00 (noon, Brussels time)

WE ARE

FPI staff around the globe are proud of the work that they are achieving and have a strong sense of purpose and motivation. They take, and value, a high level of personal responsibility. A policy-driven approach, a focus on priorities, solutions and impact, combined with a welcoming and supporting atmosphere, are part of the service’s corporate culture. The service promotes professionalism and teamwork, encourages commitment and promotes respect. It also seeks to embed trust and fairness while prioritising effective communication at all levels.

The Service reports directly to the High Representative / Vice-President (HR/VP). The Service works in close cooperation with the other Commission services, as well as with the European External Action Service (EEAS), both in headquarters and in delegations.

Within the Service for Foreign Policy Instruments, FPI.3 manages rapid response actions in Europe, Asia and the Americas – both under the Crisis Response and Foreign Policy Needs components – of the Neighbourhood, Development and International Cooperation Instrument (NDICI-Global Europe). Thematically, the Unit leads FPI’s work on Public and Cultural Diplomacy, Disinformation as well as mine action and economic issues and global health.

It is also responsible for cooperation with High-income countries (HICs) and Public Diplomacy (in HICs as well as in China, India, Brazil, Mexico and Argentina) in its geographic area of responsibility.

The Unit works in close cooperation with the EEAS and all relevant European Commission services at headquarters as well as in EU Delegations. It acts as the EU’s first responder in situation of urgency, emerging crisis, crisis and post-crisis and in providing support to urgent foreign policy needs and opportunities in areas such as effective multilateralism, disinformation and foreign information manipulation, global health and public and cultural diplomacy.

Together with the FPI Regional Teams in Bangkok, Washington, and Vienna, the Unit collaborates closely with EU Member State agencies, international organisations, civil society and the private sector to effectively deliver on EU foreign policy commitments through conflict-sensitive and policy-driven action.

Team spirit, a strong sense of initiative and responsibility is a common feature of all unit members.

WE PROPOSE

FPI.3 is seeking to hire an International Relations Officer - Rapid Response Manager for Europe and Central Asia, with a specific focus on the thematic areas of countering disinformation and promoting foresight.

The work involves coordination with Commission line DGs and the EEAS on EU policies and their projection abroad. The successful candidate will be part of a dynamic, friendly and motivated team with a strong emphasis on collaboration.

The position will consist in contributing to the development and management of timely, robust and well-grounded EU responses to top foreign policy priorities, crises and conflicts in third countries, in particular under the Crisis and Foreign Policy Needs components of NDICI Global Europe's Rapid Response Pillar.

Geographically the selected candidate will focus on the Europe and Central Asia region with an initial focus on Western Balkans and Turkey, while, thematically, the position will focus on countering disinformation and promoting foresight capabilities, including the coordination and quality management of related activities and working closely with other EU services and international actors.

WE LOOK FOR

We look for an experienced, dynamic, reliable, well-organised professional with substantial experience in the areas of foresight and / or countering disinformation as well as hands on experience in programme management. The candidate should have excellent team spirit and planning and coordination skills with the ability to adjust to multiple tasks even under tight deadlines. They should be pro-active, flexible and able to organise the work independently with a strong sense of responsibility.

A positive attitude, excellent writing and communication skills, interpersonal skills and a good judgement are also essential as well as a good knowledge of EU financial and contractual procedures.

The candidate should have at least at least 5 years of experience of working in external action of which at least 1 year as a geographic or thematic desk officer, or in a comparable position managing the interface between policy and operational aspects in a geographic or in a thematic field, including in the domain of countering disinformation. Experience in the area of project management in European external action of at least 1 year is desirable. Specific experience in managing a portfolio of action (policy or project management) in the realm of countering disinformation and prior experience with foresight are an advantage. An excellent knowledge of English is essential, a good knowledge of French is an asset, as is a good level of Russian, Arabic and / or Mandarin. Thematic knowledge of the Europe and Central Asia region, including in particular the Western Balkans and Turkey, as well as familiarity with strategies and approaches adopted by the EU to counter disinformation and / or promote foresight are a strong asset.

The candidate/job holder must either be a holder of a valid security clearance up to the level of "SECRET UE/EU SECRET" or be willing to undergo the national security vetting procedure (in order to be allowed to perform their job).

➤ What about the selection steps?

The selecting unit chooses from the EPSO database⁴ candidates with the appropriate profile and invites them to an interview. For the interview a selection panel is set-up to assess the best candidates. Due to the large volume of applications that we may receive only candidates selected for the interview will be notified.

For operational reasons and in order to complete the selection procedure as quickly as possible in the interest of the candidates and of the institution, the selection procedure will be carried out in English and possibly in a second official language.

⁴ Therefore, candidates who did not pass already a CAST on the level Function Group IV, should register their profile at this address.

2. Recruitment

The candidate selected for recruitment will be requested to provide documentary evidence in support of the statements made in the database and, where relevant, the call for interest.

The successful candidate will be required to undergo a mandatory pre-recruitment medical check-up carried out by the Commission. Candidates will be required to undergo a security vetting that is conducted with the national administration of the Member State.

➤ Type of contract and working conditions

The place of employment will be in Brussels.

The successful candidate will be engaged as a contract agent under Article 3(b) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, in function group FG IV. General information on Contract Agents can be found at this link.

The grade or proposed grade range, as well as the step in that grade, will be defined on the basis of the candidates' previous professional experience, in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2017\)6760 laying down the criteria applicable to classification in step on engagement.

The duration of the first contract will be of 1 year. Subject to the interest of the service, the contract may be renewed one or more times up to a maximum duration of 6 years.

The duration of the renewal(s) will be defined according to the General Implementing Rules in force at that moment (currently, Commission Decision C\(2017\)6760 on policies for the engagement and use of contract agents).

All new staff have to successfully complete a 9-month probationary period.

The pay of staff members consists of a basic salary supplemented with specific allowances, including, where applicable, expatriation and family allowances. The provisions guiding the calculation of these allowances can be consulted in the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants. As a member of staff of the European institutions, your pay is subject to a tax raised by those institutions.

The European Commission applies a policy of equal opportunities and non-discrimination in accordance with Article 1d of the Staff Regulations.
