DG RTD – European Commission

Job title: Economic and policy analyst – Performance monitoring

Domain: SCIENCE and RESEARCH

Where: Unit RTD.G2 – Common Programme Analysis & Regulatory Reform, Brussels

Function Group: FG IV

Contract Type: 3b

Express your interest until: 18.04.2025 – 12.00 (noon, Brussels time)

WE ARE

We are a stimulating analytical unit that drives the strategic analysis of the Framework Programme for Research and Innovation (Horizon Europe) and supports the development of innovation-friendly legislation. We steer the Framework Programme's impact assessments and evaluations, and we monitor its performance and impact on the ground.

We are a very friendly and motivated team and we empower all our colleagues to be their best.

In particular, we:

- monitor the performance of R&I Framework Programmes by analysing the progress made towards achieving objectives and expected impact;
- Design, analyse and publish new methods and indicators to report on the scientific, societal and economic impact of EU-funded research and innovation;
- steer the monitoring, evaluation and analysis virtual entity (MEAVE) where the research family of DGs gather to develop new analytical approaches to research and innovation policy;
- design and perform Horizon Europe evaluations;
- conduct impact assessments of the R&I Framework Programme and contribute to impact assessments on policies relevant for R&I;
- support Commission services in assessing the impacts of legislation on innovation;
- support and steer the evaluations and impact assessments of other strategic initiatives of our DG.

WE PROPOSE

Unit G2 of DG RTD is proposing one rewarding, challenging and highly-visible position as an analyst of research and innovation policy, with the goal of improving European research policy based on solid analysis. The post has strong analytical, policy and coordination dimensions.

The position will consist on working with our team to design and conduct strategic analyses of how EU funding for research and innovation is performing towards its objectives. On contributing to the annual performance reporting framework including the monitoring of overall progress of the R&I

Programmes, the analysis of the programme performance and the drafting of the annual programme performance reports on behalf the R&I family. Beyond the European Framework Programme for research and innovation, on analysing the bigger policy context in which it operates. Also on coordinating with us a network of colleagues from other DGs of the “R&I family” to complement and validate our analyses.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a motivated and capable person who:

- is dynamic, proactive and interested in research and innovation policy;
- is a good team player and foster a positive working environment;
- can swiftly learn on-the-job in an autonomous way;
- can analyse and present complex issues, including in particular quantitative and qualitative data, in an operational way, propose solutions and implement them;
- have a good general knowledge of EU research and innovation policies, and/or a good knowledge of Better Regulation;
- will promote cooperation with other parts of the DG R&I and of the research family DGs and with external interlocutors;
- have a good analytical, drafting and communication skills.
- Have a good numeracy and understanding of the sources and methods of calculation of indicators, particularly outputs of research and innovation.

Previous experience with monitoring and performance systems, indicators and IT tools, including dashboards, is an asset. Previous experience with monitoring and evaluation of climate and environmental policies is also appreciated.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?
