

MAKE A DIFFERENCE - JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging positions with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to try several areas or move between different policy areas in your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Function Group: FG III

Contract Type: 3a

Express your interest until: 16.04.2025 - 12.00 (noon, Brussels time)

WE ARE

The Office for Infrastructure and Logistics in Luxembourg (OIL) is an administrative office with almost 430 staff members and which manages, among other things, the social infrastructure of the European Commission in Luxembourg, including those of the Interinstitutional Children’s Centre (CPE) for the services of the Garderie and the Study and Recreation Centre.

The mission of Unit OIL.07 is to provide care on the Bertrange/Mamer site (CPE5) for approximately 800 children, whose parents are staff members or officials of the European institutions in Luxembourg. Children are welcomed throughout the year, during school periods or during school holidays of the European School EE LUX2.

The unit comprises more than 80 people, mostly educators as well as administrative, logistical and nursing staff.

WE PROPOSE

We offer a post of budget assistant responsible for managing the unit’s budgetary operations and supporting the actions of the unit’s staff members in the field.

The main tasks are as follows:

- ensure the application of the financial regulation and other instructions from OIL’s financial unit,
- establish and update the unit’s budgetary/financial procedures and ensure budgetary support for the unit’s staff,
- assist in the planning, preparation and monitoring of the budget related to the activities of the unit,

- prepare and produce financial reports and statistics, as well as related notes and documents,
- prepare purchase orders/requests in cooperation with the operational and financial teams,
- initiate transactions and collect supporting documents for payment of invoices,
- prepare payments by ensuring careful verification of supporting documents and their compliance with the applicable contracts and rules,
- ensure the filling of financial documents and the maintenance of financial files containing all the documents necessary to justify each financial transaction,
- assist in the organisation of calls for tenders related to the needs of the unit,
- collaborate in the management of orders and follow up of files related to replacement staff,
- maintain contacts with contractors and providers.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a candidate with training in the economic and/or accounting field, with at least 1-year professional experience in the budgetary management of a public body.

The ideal candidate shall have:

- control of the financial rules specific to the European Institutions,
- knowledge of administrative and budgetary procedures, as well as the accounting tools used by the European Commission,
- a methodical spirit and rigour of work,
- very good organisational and collaborative skills,
- ability to manage emergencies, work under pressure while maintaining a friendly and courteous attitude,
- excellent interpersonal skills and ability to communicate with budgetary and operational actors,
- the ability to collaborate with a large team of educators and to adapt to their specific working environment,
- mastery of office tools and software (Word, Excel, etc.),
- strong team spirit, customer service and confidentiality,
- proven ability to take initiatives and propose pragmatic solutions.

The job requires working independently most of the time, but also working together in a team.

An excellent command of French is essential, and a good knowledge of English would be an asset. Knowledge of any other language will also be taken into consideration.
