Speech writer

Directorate-General for Environment (DG ENV) of the European Commission

Selection reference: ENV/COM/2025/336

Domain: Communication

Where: Unit ENV.A.2 – „Communication & IT-solutions“, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b – Administrator

Grade range: AD5-AD8

Publication deadline: 29.04.2025 – 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

ENV.A.2 is organised into two sectors:

1. Communications, supporting the political promotion of DG Environment's policy.
2. IT solutions, developing and maintaining digital tools to support Member States in the implementation of the environmental acquis.

We perform our work in the wider context of the EU's green transition. DG Environment implements a rich and dynamic political portfolio, which gives emphasis to external communication and deployment of innovative digital solutions. We aim to do the things right, but also to do the right things. That means giving space to new and innovative approaches, whilst making strategic choices based on political priorities and what has the most impact.

The Communication sector is organised in a matrix fashion, with colleagues regularly engaging in new constellations depending on the political priorities and the resulting projects and tasks. It's a high-paced and dynamic environment with close interactions with the rest of DG ENV, the Cabinet, the spokesperson service (SPP), DG ENV's senior management and external stakeholders.

WE PROPOSE

The purpose of the vacant post is to contribute to achieving DG Environment's political priorities, through the production of high-impact quality texts, including high level speeches. As part of the wider communications sector, the speechwriter holds broader responsibilities, also covering press work and preparation/drafting of Commissioner's interviews, articles, video messages, etc. Moreover, the job holder is regularly involved in the revision and language check of various other key documents, such as strategy papers, management plans, key-note speeches for senior management, etc.

Moreover, s/he will work closely with the rest of the Communications sector, playing a central role in the implementation of ENV's 2030 communication strategy across the main strands of EU environmental policy. This involves working closely with Cabinet and the Spokesperson Service and may include participation in relevant networks organised by DG COMM.

WE LOOK FOR

Our ideal candidate is passionate about writing, adapts to context and audience, and believes that his/her texts can move people and shape opinions. You are strong on your facts and aware of the power of emotions. You have min. 5 years of relevant experience in writing for and engaging with high-level leaders, intuitively adapting to their needs and style.

The successful candidate has a solid understanding of and experience with EU communications, in particular written production, and appreciates the opportunities and potential provided by different oral and written formats: Speeches, pitches, opinion pieces, doorsteps, articles, interviews, etc. High-level communication experience, also if acquired outside the Commission (e.g. in the UN system or other International organisations), is an asset in serving a portfolio with important international exposure.

In a rapidly changing world, the right candidate easily connects the environment portfolio to the wider strategic and political context, explaining how environment action contributes not only to the health of people and planet, but also underpins other strategic priorities such societal resilience, resource efficiency, competitiveness or security.

You enjoy working in a dynamic environment, where your flexibility helps you thrive and where there is room for your own ideas to shape your framework conditions. You are a good networker, you seek inspiration from other skilled writers and communicators, and you are ready to test new ideas in practice. You're a team player, as well as a "self-starter" and able to work autonomously.

You are interested in environment policy and experience preferably from this or a related policy area would be considered an asset.

You benefit from native-level drafting skills in English. A solid command of French as well as other EU languages would be considered an advantage.
