

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive working place.

WE OFFER ATTRACTIVE WORKING CONDITIONS AND MUCH MORE:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children.

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden<sup>1</sup>. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission often recruits non-permanent staff. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Publication deadline: 10.06.2025 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

Unit HR.B.1 (Competitions, Selections & Secondments) deals with a wide range of human resources policies covering various aspects of a staff member's career. We are responsible for (1) organising and running competitions and selections as well as handling the relations with EPSO, (2) running the Junior Professionals Programme and (3) managing career-related events for statutory staff and running the programme for seconded national experts (SNE) and national experts in professional training (NEPT).

WE PROPOSE

Do you want to play a role in running the Commission's internal competitions and are you interested in human resources management? If yes, we propose a challenging position as team leader in a dynamic, enthusiastic and supportive team.

In this position, you will focus on the Commission's needs assessment for open and internal competitions; ensure the internal communication related to internal competitions as well as contribute to the design and implantation of the internal competition processes and procedures. You will also assist with the development and delivery of the IT tool for managing internal competitions. Finally, you will be responsible for drafting the various briefing notes in the areas covered by the sector and participate and represent the Commission during EPSO working group meetings linked to competitions.

It is a very challenging position where you will be able to apply and develop your coordination skills and your communication and network skills with the various stakeholders such as colleagues and management of DG HR, HR Correspondent teams as well as colleagues in other Institutions.

WE LOOK FOR

Unit HR.B.1 is looking for a highly motivated, dynamic, proactive and well-organised person with a strong sense of responsibility and client orientation as well as a great team spirit. The candidate sought should have proven oral and written communication skills in English and in French and an excellent analytical capacity looking for solutions. We look for someone who has the required diplomatic skills to motivate a team working under pressure. Digitally proficiency whereas discretion and confidentiality are a given.

We are looking for a candidate with university degree in the field of human resources and at least two years' experience in organising competitions.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:
