

MAKE A DIFFERENCE - JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging positions with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to try several areas or move between different policy areas in your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Administrative and Project Assistant in DG INTPA of the European Commission

Job title: Administrative and Project assistant

Domain: External relations

Where: Unit G3- Youth, Education and Research, Culture – Brussels

Function Group: FG III

Contract Type: 3b

Express your interest until: 30.05.2025 - 12.00 (noon, Brussels time)

WE ARE

The Directorate General for International Partnerships (INTPA) mission is to contribute – in the context of the European Union's external relations – to sustainable development, the eradication of poverty, peace and the protection of human rights, through international partnerships that uphold and promote European values and interests. It is responsible for designing EU external action policies and for the implementation of the Commission's external action Instruments.

INTPA's Unit G3 is part of Directorate G: Human Development, Migration, Governance and Peace.

The Unit operates as a centre of expertise for cooperation in the areas of Youth, Education and Research, and Culture. The Unit is responsible for coordinating INTPA's work designing and implementing external policies in these areas, identifying and formulating EU actions, and supporting capacity building in EU delegations.

The Unit is working closely with other INTPA services and with other Commission DGs (notably EAC and RTD), the EEAS, EU Member States and other stakeholders to ensure policy coherence and the integration of the external dimension of internal policies.

WE PROPOSE

An interesting position in a dynamic team in which the candidate will have the opportunity to both support the team administratively, while at the same time developing his/her project management skills at EU level. The candidate will have the opportunity to build competences in the area of EU project cycle management, rules and procedures, budget implementation, procurement and evaluation, and to contribute to knowledge development and sharing. The job will also involve communication and engagement with internal and external stakeholders. Finally, the position will enable the candidate to learn more about policy development and implementation in the area of youth and global citizenship education as well as other areas covered by the unit.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a highly motivated person with strong administrative and organisational skills and eager to build project management skills, to join our dynamic team in the implementation of Youth and Global citizenship education policies (Youth Action Plan in EU External Action and Development Education and Awareness Raising – DEAR – programme). This will entail both providing administrative support to the team and managing some projects, supporting the preparation and management of calls for proposals, tenders, projects, and dissemination activities, in headquarters and delegations.

The candidate should ideally have some knowledge of the EU, youth and global citizenship education policies or a keen interest in those topics, and in international partnerships in general. S/he should have experience in working on projects. S/he should be at ease with learning and using new IT tools. The candidate should be proactive, self-driven by interest to learn and acquire new knowledge and skills. S/he should be results- and solutions-oriented.

A very good command of English (oral and written) is required.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

With a view to guaranteeing equal access to all, the Commission recruits from an open database of spontaneous applications. The present call for interests aims at helping the recruiters to identify potentially interested candidates within this database.

In practice, to express your interest, please follow the subsequent two steps:

1. If you are not registered yet in the open EPSO database, please do so at the following address: CAST Permanent. Please select under selection procedures for contract agent the CAST permanent profile that best suits your education and experience.
2. You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV
2. completed application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to INTPA-G3@ec.europa.eu indicating the call for interest reference EC/2025/INTPA/488870 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.
