STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Administrative Assistant

in DG MOVE – European Commission

Job title: Administrative Assistant

Domain: Support Staff

Where: Unit C.4 – (Rail Safety & Interoperability), Brussels

Function Group: FG III

Contract Type: 3b

Express your interest by: 19 May 2025 – 12.00 (noon, Brussels time)

WE ARE

The Directorate-General for Mobility and Transport (DG MOVE) is responsible for developing and implementing European policies in the transport field. Within DG MOVE, Directorate C covers "Land transport", embracing road, road safety and all rail matters, except financing and passenger rights. Unit C4 is responsible for the technical side of rail policy by creating a smart, safe and sustainable rail transport system without frontiers and thus contributes to digitalisation and low/zero-emission policy.

The core tasks of the unit are:

- Policy development, in particular work towards a more harmonised and innovative rail system, for better and more affordable services, while ensuring railway safety and interoperability of systems;
- Identification of valid technical solutions developed by research and rail expertise and turning them into legislative and non-legislative measures ensuring that rail is fit to deliver the needs of the European Green Deal and the Smart and Sustainable Mobility Strategy;
- Management, policy instruction and monitoring of the European Union Agency for Railways (ERA) and the Joint Undertaking Europe's Rail (ERJU);
- Contributing to tasks in other DG MOVE units, such as TEN-T financing, passenger rights, multimodal digitalisation and data exchange; and
- Close liaison with all actors in the rail and the rail supply field and with intentional partners.

More information on our objectives and activities is available here: https://transport.ec.europa.eu/index_en

We are an enthusiastic and committed team of 14 colleagues with a mix of different profiles of technical, legal, economic and policy backgrounds. We like to go the extra mile to push rail policy objectives.

WE PROPOSE

(Reference: Call for interest EC/2025/MOVE/489009)

The main tasks would include the coordination and overseeing of briefings, preparation of files, organization of missions and meetings (and subsequent reimbursement requests), helping to deal with legislative procedures, translation requests, launching Interservice consultations and the registration and follow-up of incoming/outgoing mail, ensuring deadlines are met etc. He/she will also coordinate the handling of complaints and infringements and requests for access to documents. The successful candidate will also work closely with the other assistant, providing back-up in her absence. DG MOVE is keen to provide assistants with good opportunities for continuous learning, enabling new colleagues to acquire the necessary skills to work autonomously, to develop initiatives and to manage their own priorities.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a motivated and dynamic colleague who enjoys teamwork. The post requires reliability, accuracy and attention to detail and good organizational skills. The candidate should demonstrate a sense of initiative and willingness to assume responsibilities, as well as the ability to work both as a member of a team and independently. The candidate should have good knowledge of the standard IT tools (e.g. Word, Powerpoint, Excel) A good command of English is essential; knowledge of French would be an asset. Familiarity with tools used for Commission adoption procedures would be an additional advantage.
