We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Legal and Policy Officer

in DG MOVE – European Commission

Job title: Legal and Policy Officer

Domain: European Public Administration

Where: Unit MOVE B3 – „Innovation and Research“, Brussels

Function Group: FG IV

Contract Type: 3b

Express your interest until: 10.06.2025 – 12.00 (noon, Brussels time)

WE ARE

Under the political guidance of the College of Commissioners, in particular Apostolos Tzitzikostas, Commissioner responsible for Sustainable Transport and Tourism, the Directorate-General for Mobility and Transport (DG MOVE) is responsible for developing and implementing European policies in the transport field, including the promotion of Trans-European networks and transport research policies. Directorate MOVE.B is in charge of developing, coordinating, implementing and monitoring policies for an innovative and sustainable transport policy and related investments. It consists of five units.

Unit MOVE.B.3 “Innovation & Research” is in charge of designing and implementing appropriate transport Research and Innovation (R&I) policy to foster innovation in and between all transport policies and areas and their links to related policy fields such as energy and digitalisation. Although not fully mentioned in its title, the mission of Unit B.3 is also to coordinate and implement an urban mobility policy and rural mobility links to support the transport objectives of the EU. The unit is composed of 20 staff members and it is located in Brussels.

WE PROPOSE

Unit B3 of DG MOVE is seeking to hire one colleague.

The position will consist of :

- Handling complaints from citizens, in particular on urban vehicle regulations and parking
- Contributing to the implementation of the legal requirements related to urban nodes in Regulation 2024/1679 with legal expertise
- Preparing answers to questions (written and / or oral) and / or petitions from the European Parliament, investigations by the European Ombudsman and / or reports of the Court of Auditors which are relevant for the unit.
- Contributing to drafting of legal texts which are relevant for the unit
- Contributing to the development, management, monitoring and / or evaluation of policies relevant for the unit.

We offer work in a friendly and collegiate atmosphere, which will bring opportunities for the right candidate to learn and develop further in her/his career.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a motivated and dynamic colleague with at least 3 years of relevant professional experience and an in-depth knowledge of European Law (legal analysis and advice). Experience in transport policy would be an asset.

He/she should be a team player, with excellent inter-personal skills and knowledge-sharing culture, proactively reaching out to cooperate with colleagues in the unit, in the DG and beyond.

The successful candidate should demonstrate his/her ability to create links between technical/legal issues and political priorities and to effectively communicate in a structured way with various stakeholders and the public, orally and in writing. He/she should be well organised and have strong problem-solving and analytical skills. For this particular post, a very good knowledge of English is required.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

With a view to guaranteeing equal access to all, the Commission recruits from an open database of spontaneous applications. The present call for interests aims at helping the recruiters to identify potentially interested candidates within this database.
