We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Policy Officer

DG Trade and Economic Security of the European Commission

Job title: Policy Officer – Economic and Trade Desk

Domain: European Public Administration

Where: Unit TRADE.E.3 – Industry, goods, energy, customs and origin – Brussels.

Function Group: FG IV

Contract Type: 3b

Express your interest until: 22.05.2025 – 12.00 (noon, Brussels time)

WE ARE

DG Trade and Economic Security defines, leads and implements the Union's trade and economic security policy. EU trade policy is an EU exclusive competence.

Unit TRADE.E.3 is responsible for developing and implementing the trade policies related to trade in goods, energy, customs and origin, as well as to relations with industry. The Unit is made up of 24 great colleagues, who work in a very good team spirit and is divided in three clusters: Rules of Origin, Trade in Goods including Trade Facilitation and Industry.

WE PROPOSE

We propose a Policy Officer position within our Rules of Origin team, consisting of colleagues with extensive expertise in this domain. The successful candidate will have to apply its technical expertise in this field and to manage diverse tasks, including negotiating rules of origin within Free Trade Agreements, presenting and defending the EU position in international forum. The position offers opportunities to engage with other EU Institutions, Directorates General, international organisations, Member States, and different industries.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a team player with strong inter-personal and analytical skills, a sense of initiative, judgement, discretion and flexibility. The ideal candidate should have:

- A proven track record in dealing with rules of origin and customs matters in the private or public sector (minimum 3 years).
- Experience with negotiations is an asset.
- Knowledge of EU trade policy and its interplay with other policies.

- Strong analytical and organisational skills as well as a good understanding of political and institutional sensitivities.
- Strong interest in technical matters with a willingness to deepen expertise in the production processes of products. The ability to deliver quality outputs and ensure multitasking under pressure.
- Excellent capacity to work as part of a team.
- Knowledge of EU trade policy and its interplay with other policies. Ability to work in an international environment, with potential missions abroad.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office Applications, including Excel, PowerPoint, Word, and SharePoint, along with a strong understanding of general IT technical skills.
- An excellent knowledge of written and spoken English, with excellent drafting and communication skills for both internal and external audiences, is essential.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?
