We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

This work includes:

- Acting as the country officer for 2 to 3 countries, including maintaining continuous contact with the statistical offices of these countries, supporting them to design cooperation projects, assessing progress in the development;
- Assessing the compliance of the statistics produced by the countries with European standards;
- Managing contracts, including the review of Terms of Reference for activities, reading reports, following up on deliverables to be provided by the contractor;
- Organising meetings with the beneficiary countries to discuss progress;
- Organising and managing meetings with the partner countries.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a candidate with

- A vivid interest in statistical cooperation and working with countries in the European Neighbourhood;
- Knowledge about statistics and experience of working in a statistical domain;
- Willingness to think and reflect on cooperation in the given political context;
- Experience in working with beneficiary countries in any regions of the world;
- A flexible and open mind to adjust to changing circumstances;
- A willingness to learn;
- Good oral and written communication in English.
- Good team working skills.
