

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging positions with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to try several areas or move between different policy areas in your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

IT Business Analyst Assistant

in DG HR of the European Commission

Job title: IT Business Analysis Assistant – Sysper Business Analysis Assistant

Domain: Information technology

Where: Unit HR.04 – HR Digital Solutions & Business Process Efficiency, Brussels

Function Group: FG III

Contract Type: 3b

Express your interest until: 13.10.2025 – 12.00 (noon, Brussels time)

WE ARE

The Human Resources and Security Directorate General (DG HR) oversees recruitment policy, training and career management, social policies and working conditions for Commission staff. It is also responsible for keeping buildings and employees safe and secure, making sure that work continues during crises and dealing with online security.

Unit HR.04 plans and coordinates the evolution of the corporate HR Information Systems, notably SYSPER (internal IT tool). We ensure these solutions align with the Commission's HR strategic vision and values.

We are a professional, friendly and welcoming team committed to making the HR strategy a reality. With a diverse range of talents and expertise, we foster an inclusive and cooperative work environment. Joining our unit means becoming part of a collaborative team, where colleagues strive to make a positive impact on EU Institutions and are prepared to go the extra mile to deliver results.

Acting as the primary liaison between DG HR and DIGIT (Directorate-General for Digital Services), we oversee joint planning for IT development in HR policy areas. Additionally, Unit HR.04 manages relationships with various stakeholders, including business units within DG HR and other members of the HR Family, such as a growing number of EU institutions and agencies utilising the Commission's HR solutions.

Furthermore, the unit plays a pivotal role in the HR Digital Transformation programme. This programme seeks to revolutionise the Commission's current HR IT landscape and that of its partners. This ambitious transformation aims to establish an HR IT platform that will spearhead the implementation of the HR Strategy.

WE PROPOSE

To support the unit's work, we are looking for an IT Business Analyst who will contribute to the evolution and the transformation of the HR IT landscape.

In line with the objectives set in the HR Strategy, she/he will contribute to the implementation of IT projects for current and future HR IT platform and applications. In addition to coordinate with stakeholders from the EU Organisations, the IT Business Analyst will work closely with business units in DG HR (owners of different HR IT solutions) and DIGIT (responsible for the technical operations).

The person appointed will work with a dynamic team, focused on delivery, smooth collaboration and service orientation.

The list of possible tasks is:

- Analyse how the HR processes, definitions, principles, practices are implemented by the different EU organisation with a view of supporting the use of the HR IT platform.
- Identify viable business solutions, translate them into technical specifications and assist with their technical implementation.
- Define use cases and test scenarios on different technical environments.
- Support the change management process and analyse change requests to meet business requirements.
- Develop and deliver business-oriented documentation, training and coaching sessions.
- Analyse business processes and propose options implementation and for automation/simplification in line with the capabilities and standards offered.
- Provide second level support for business and functional inquiries.
- Initiate and contribute to projects and continuous improvement initiatives.
- Interact with multiple stakeholders inside the DG, with the rest of the HR family, with DIGIT and with other EU organisations.
- Assist with the design of targeted modules of the HR Transformation programme, which is partly developed using ServiceNow.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a successful candidate with a strong IT background and experience as business analyst with at least three years of professional experience in a position with similar duties and domain would be an advantage

Required experience:

- Technical knowledge, skills, and experience in interacting with users of IT systems and IT developers.

- Knowledge and/or keen interest in Commission's human resources rules, processes and tools.
- Capacity to understand interdependencies between technology, operations and business needs.
- Advanced drafting skills, including technical drafting and presentation skills.
- Strong analytical capacity and solution-oriented thinking.
- A high sense of responsibility and strong service orientation.
- Very good communication skills, with ability to analyse and structure complex information.
- High degree of planning and organisational skills, able to prioritise and manage multiple files and deliverables.
- Good interpersonal skills, working well both independently and in a team-oriented, collaborative environment.
- Very good command of spoken and written English equivalent to minimum level C1 and knowledge of French would be an advantage.
