We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

¹ Please note that the list of underrepresented Member States may be subject to future amendment based on potential data changes over time.

Finance and contracts officer

Service for Foreign Policy Instruments (FPI) of the European Commission

Job title: Finance and contracts officer – Finance specialist for CFSP operations – Mission support
Platform (MSP)

Domain: BUDGET, FINANCE, CONTRACTS and ACCOUNTING

Where: Unit FPI.6 – “Common Foreign & Security Policy Operations & Election Observation” Brussels

Function Group: FG IV

Contract Type: Contract agent 3b

Express your interest until: 31/10/2025 - 12.00 (noon, Brussels time)

WE ARE

FPI staff around the globe are proud of the work that they are achieving and have a strong sense of purpose and motivation. They take, and value, a high level of personal responsibility. A policy-driven approach, a focus on priorities, solutions and impact, combined with a welcoming and supporting atmosphere, are part of the service's corporate culture. The service promotes professionalism and teamwork, encourages commitment and promotes respect. It also seeks to embed trust and fairness while prioritising effective communication at all levels.

The Service reports directly to the High Representative / Vice-President (HR/VP). The Service works in close cooperation with the other Commission services, as well as with the European External Action Service (EEAS), both in headquarters and in delegations.

Within the Service for Foreign Policy Instruments, FPI.6 works closely with the EEAS to implement actions financed under the Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP) budget, and for financing and preparing Election Observations Missions (EOM) under the Neighbourhood, Development and International Cooperation Instrument (NDICI).

In particular, the Unit sets up and manages the implementation of CFSP/CSDP civilian crisis management operations worldwide, such as the monitoring mission in Georgia, the rule of law mission in Kosovo, and the advisory mission in Iraq. It also contracts for, and provides support to, EU Special Representatives appointed by the Council.

The Unit manages projects in the field of non-proliferation of weapons of mass destruction and small arms and light weapons.

Furthermore, the Unit finances and prepares EOMs that observe and assess various aspects of electoral processes in partner countries.

WE PROPOSE

We propose an attractive and challenging position as a Finance and contracts officer – Finance specialist for CFSP operations – Mission support Platform (MSP) to provide support and advice on financial matters to EU civilian CSDP Missions.

The work involves coordination with Commission line DGs and the EEAS on EU policies and their projection abroad. The successful candidate will be part of a dynamic, friendly and motivated team with a strong emphasis on collaboration.

The position will consist of:

- Providing guidance, interpretation and advice on practical implementation of financial regulatory frameworks applicable to civilian CSDP Missions.
- Drafting and revising financial guidelines, manuals, and standard operating procedures.
- Delivering training to Missions on finance-related matters when required.
- Participating in on-site monitoring visits to support Mission teams in compliance matters.
- Contributing to the coordination the finance community of practice amongst Mission staff (i.e. online chat groups, the yearly in-person seminar, i.a.).

WE LOOK FOR

We look for an experienced, dynamic, reliable, well-organised finance specialist with a good team spirit and excellent planning and coordination skills. They should be pro-active, flexible and able to organise the work independently with a strong sense of responsibility. They should be able to adjust to multiple tasks even under tight deadlines.

A positive attitude, excellent writing and communication skills, excellent inter-personal skills and a good judgement are also essential as well as a good knowledge of EU financial and contractual procedures.

The candidate should have at least 3 years' experience in finance-related activities (e.g. project finances' management, budget, financial audit or accounting) in the EU Institutions, international organisation, other public administration or equivalent. A degree in accounting, finance or equivalent is an asset. Proficiency in using accounting software packages or enterprise resource planning platforms is an asset. An excellent knowledge of English is essential, and a good knowledge of French is an asset.

The candidate/job holder must either be a holder of a valid security clearance up to the level of "SECRET UE/EU SECRET" or be willing to undergo the national security vetting procedure (in order to be allowed to perform their job).

➤ What about the selection steps?

The selecting unit chooses from the EPSO database⁴ candidates with the appropriate profile and invites them to an interview. For the interview a selection panel is set-up to assess the best candidates. Due to the large volume of applications that we may receive only candidates selected for the interview will be notified.

For operational reasons and in order to complete the selection procedure as quickly as possible in the interest of the candidates and of the institution, the selection procedure will be carried out in English and possibly in a second official language.

⁴ Therefore, candidates who did not pass already a CAST on the corresponding level Function Group IV, should register their profile at this address.

2. Recruitment

The candidate selected for recruitment will be requested to provide documentary evidence in support of the statements made in the database and, where relevant, the call for interest.

The successful candidate will be required to undergo a mandatory pre-recruitment medical check-up carried out by the Commission. Candidates are required to undergo a security vetting that is conducted with the national administration of the Member State.

➤ Type of contract and working conditions

The place of employment will be in Brussels.

The successful candidate will be engaged as a contract agent under Article 3(b) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, in function group FG IV. General information on Contract Agents can be found at this link.

The grade or proposed grade range, as well as the step in that grade, will be defined on the basis of the candidates' previous professional experience, in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2017\)6760 laying down the criteria applicable to classification in step on engagement.

The duration of the first contract will be of 2 years. Subject to the interest of the service, the contract can be extended to a maximum duration of 6 years.

The duration of the renewal(s) will be defined according to the General Implementing Rules in force at that moment (currently, Commission Decision C\(2017\)6760 on policies for the engagement and use of contract agents).

Contract agents recruited in Function Group IV have to successfully complete a 9-month probationary period.

The pay of staff members consists of a basic salary supplemented with specific allowances, including, where applicable, expatriation and family allowances. The provisions guiding the calculation of these allowances can be consulted in the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants. As a member of staff of the European institutions, your pay is subject to a tax raised by those institutions.

The European Commission applies a policy of equal opportunities and non-discrimination in accordance with Article 1d of the Staff Regulations.

Should you need further information on working conditions, please refer to Working conditions and benefits of EU Careers.
