STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions.. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

WE ARE

The Directorate-General for Research and Innovation (DG RTD) is responsible for developing and implementing the European Research and Innovation (R&I) policy with a view to achieving the goals of Europe 2030 and the Innovation Union. DG RTD supports research and innovation through European framework programmes, coordinates and supports national and regional research and innovation programmes, contributes to the creation of the European Research Area and supports European organisations and researchers in their cooperation at international level.

RTD.H is the “Common Implementation Centre” (CIC) which designs the strategy and provides the framework for the coherent and simplified implementation of EU R&I programmes and other direct management programmes. It collaborates closely with the central services and other DGs to offer modern and streamlined services to the research family of the Commission. The CIC drives the digital transformation across the Commission to maximise synergies between EU programmes and strives for further harmonisation of project life-cycle management. It provides modern, comprehensive and high-quality services and advice on legal, audit, business process and IT issues to the entire research family. As the one-stop shop for data, reporting, and monitoring of the research framework programmes, it provides innovative solutions and knowledge to policy-making and stimulates the exploitation of results.

RTD.H.DEP.IT "Common IT Service" implements (in partnership with DG DIGIT) reliable, modern and high-quality information systems supporting the full cycle of Grant Management for all direct granting programmes and entities supported in the Commission. The Department has a corporate role in the provision of eGrants systems and services for the whole Commission. The Department is responsible for the development and maintenance of IT applications (eGrants suite) covering the complete grant cycle, from call definition and publication, to audits and programme evaluation, experts, external administrative staff and beneficiaries.
