

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

The successful candidate will contribute to the definition of, and coordinate the implementation of EU policies relating to Bosnia and Herzegovina and related accession path preparation, including on the 8 steps for candidate status and the 14 key priorities, Negotiation Framework and screening process, together with the Growth Plan for the Western Balkans.

He/she will coordinate the preparation of the Commission's annual report on Bosnia and Herzegovina and lead on the political criteria, good neighbourly relations and CFSP/chapter 31.

He/she will coordinate and contribute to the relevant briefings, policy papers, replies to parliamentary questions, correspondence and press requests.

He/she will represent / support the representation of the unit in relevant working groups and meetings in Council and Parliament, and with other counterparts, including international organisations; The job also includes representing the Commission in the relevant internal and external fora, cooperating with other institutions and involves missions to Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The job calls for a high degree of responsibility, autonomy, commitment and flexibility; the nature of some of these tasks may also be adjusted over time.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a highly motivated, dynamic, well organised and pro-active team player with experience on enlargement and a thorough understanding of the political situation in Bosnia and Herzegovina, a track record in policy analysis and development in relevant areas. He/she should be keen to draft clear policy notes and communication material.

The ideal profile for the job should have :

- Master in political sciences or related field
- Good understanding of the EU and its institutions.
- Solid knowledge on pre-accession / enlargement
- At least 4 years experience in working on / with EU-Bosnia and Herzegovina relations.
- Sound political judgement and strong capacity to analyse, synthesise and present information, usually within short deadlines.
- Proven ability to cooperate and coordinate engagement/contributions of different stakeholders on EU related matters (at least 2 years experience)
- At least 2 years experience in drafting concept papers, briefings, information notes.

In addition,

- Ability to speak / read the language of the country would be an asset.
- Working experience with multilateral organisations is an asset
