

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

¹ Please note that the list of underrepresented Member States may be subject to future amendment based on potential data changes over time.

Policy Assistant

Directorate-General for Migration and Home Affairs (DG HOME) of the European Commission

Selection reference: HOME/COM/2025/2459

Domain*: EU's Internal and External Security, Migration

Where: Director A – International and Horizontal Affairs, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b - Assistant

Grade range: AST1-3

Publication deadline: 20.11.2025 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

Directorate A for International and Horizontal Affairs has around 100 staff distributed over four units. Directorate A ensures the overall coordination and coherence of home affairs policies as well as of relations with other Commission services and other institutions. Directorate A is responsible for the timely, accurate and credible communication inside DG HOME, towards external stakeholders and the public. It develops, implements and represents DG HOME's external policies on migration and security, monitors the implementation of EU law and provides assistance to the rest of the DG on legal issues.

WE PROPOSE

The position of Policy Assistant is in a highly visible area and in a stimulating and fast-moving work environment. The successful candidate will be part of a dynamic and motivated team with a strong emphasis on collaboration. He/she will provide analysis and horizontal coordination in support of the effective and efficient management of the Directorate's activities and resources. He/she will ensure assistance in dealing with procedures, tight deadlines and tools. He/she will contribute to the development and implementation of the coordination mechanisms within the DG, with a view to making internal policies and processes more efficient, simplified and streamlined.

WE LOOK FOR

We look for an experienced, dynamic, reliable, well-organised assistant with a good team spirit and excellent planning and coordination skills. He/she should be proactive, flexible and able to organise the work independently with a strong sense of responsibility. He/she should be able to adjust to multiple tasks under tight deadlines that often need to be delivered outside core working hours. A positive attitude, excellent communication, interpersonal skills and good judgment are also essential. Excellent knowledge of HOME policies and internal procedures is required. The candidate should have at least 5 years of experience in HOME policies. An excellent knowledge of English is essential, and a good understanding of German is an asset. Experience in document management would be an advantage. The candidate/job holder must either be a holder of a valid security clearance up to the level of "SECRET UE/EU SECRET" or be willing to undergo the national security vetting procedure (to be allowed to perform their job).

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV
2. completed application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to HOME-A-HR@ec.europa.eu indicating the selection reference HOME/COM/2025/2459 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.

ANNEX

1. Selection

➤ Am I eligible to apply?

You must meet the following eligibility criteria when you validate your application:

Our rules provide that you can only be recruited as a temporary agent at the European Commission if you:

General criteria:

- Are a citizen of a Member State of the EU and enjoy full rights as a citizen
- Have fulfilled any obligations imposed by applicable laws concerning military service
- Are physically fit to perform the duties linked to the post
- Produce the appropriate character references as to suitability for the performance of the duties.

Qualifications:

In order to be recruited for this position, you must have at least

- a level of post-secondary education attested by a diploma, or
- a level of secondary education attested by a diploma giving access to post-secondary education, and appropriate professional experience of at least three years.

Only qualifications issued or recognised as equivalent by EU Member State authorities (e.g. by the Ministry of Education) will be accepted. Furthermore, before recruitment, you will be required to provide the documents that corroborate the eligibility criteria (diplomas, certificates and other supporting documents).

Languages:

- have a thorough knowledge (minimum level C1) of one of the 24 official languages of the EU²
- AND a satisfactory knowledge (minimum level B2) of a second official language of the EU, to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties.
