

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Communication Assistant and Project Coordinator

Directorate-General Justice and Consumers (DG JUST) of the European Commission

Selection reference: JUST/COM/2025/2751

Domain: Communication/Project coordination

Where: Unit H2, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent – Assistant

Grade range: AST1-3

Publication deadline: 08.01.2026 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

The mission of the Directorate-General for Justice and Consumers (DG JUST) is to vindicate and strengthen the rights of people living in the European Union, whether they are acting as citizens, as entrepreneurs, as consumers or as workers, wherever they are in the EU. Our policies are based on Europeans' core values and principles – freedom, democracy, rule of law, equality, tolerance, and respect for human rights.

Unit H2 is the Interinstitutional Relations and Communication Unit for DG Justice and Consumers. We provide strategic advice and guidance to ensure smooth cooperation and negotiation with other EU institutions, particularly with the Council and the European Parliament. The team fosters strong links and strategic relationships with other institutions and represents the DG in relevant inter-institutional events. Additionally, the Unit collaborates closely with other units within the DG and supports the Commissioners and the Director-General in preparing for Council and European Parliament-related meetings. Furthermore, we communicate to the public and stakeholders on all EU justice, consumer and equality policies through a variety of channels, including press, web, social media, speechwriting and thematic awareness-raising campaigns. We put our knowledge, skills, dedication and creativity at the service of Europe in the field of Justice and Consumers. The values which inspire our work are excellence, professionalism and teamwork.

Further information on the mission and work of the DG and the Unit can be found at:

WE PROPOSE

We offer a post of Communication Assistant/Project Coordinator in a unit of highly motivated and committed colleagues working in a friendly, dynamic and stimulating atmosphere. As part of a communication unit, you will have the opportunity to work with other units across the whole department and with other services. As Communication Assistant/Project Coordinator, your main duty will be to design, develop and coordinate information and communication actions and projects in order to inform and promote policies, programmes and activities concerning DG Justice and Consumers. The role will also involve working with external contractors to prepare and deliver excellent communication products and campaigns against pre-set, measurable objectives. The work is high-paced, challenging and varied, and the post offers an excellent opportunity for a candidate with very good planning, communication and organisational skills as well as EU-level experience to contribute to a key area of Commission policy. The successful candidate will enjoy a job with responsibility in a friendly working environment where positive contributions are valued.

(Selection reference JUST/COM/2025/2751)

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a skilled, well-organised assistant willing to take initiatives, with excellent coordination, interpersonal, and organisational skills and with a high sense of responsibility, and ability to establish effective working relationships with policy units, external contractors, as well as partner services (in particular DG Communication), and external stakeholders.

The lively and fast-moving working environment means that we are looking for an autonomous person with excellent communication skills, pragmatic and punctual attitude, who is able to coordinate their work autonomously in a flexible way and multitask across a high number of projects. They should have an eye for detail, ability to prioritise, and capacity to handle a heavy workload. Efficiency and flexibility under the pressure of strict deadlines is required. Experience in setting up, coordinating, optimising and evaluating EU-level communication projects and multilingual campaigns across national markets as well as working with contractors is essential. Experience of working with budgets and EU financial rules is also necessary. Fluency in English is required; good command of French is desirable.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV
2. completed application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to JUST-H2@ec.europa.eu indicating the selection reference JUST/COM/2025/2751 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.

ANNEX
