

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

WE ARE

Within the Resources Directorate, the IT unit is in charge of the management of IT resources which are not supported at corporate level. This means to manage all the aspects of IT systems within the Directorate-General comprising the management of the user environment, the Information Systems and the specific infrastructure.

WE PROPOSE

We propose a job as Team Leader in DG ECFIN. The candidate will lead the IT development team in charge of the implementation of the Recovery and Resilience Facility (RRF) portfolio of Information Systems. This portfolio covers IT tools used by Commission Staff, Member State authorities and other European Institutions. The candidate will have to collaborate with the business unit in charge of RRF as well as representatives of SG REFORM and other ECFIN staff such economists or statistical assistants as well as colleagues of the IT unit. The focus for the future period is to ensure the business continuity of the Recovery and Resilience Facility (RRF) portfolio of IT Information Systems. Contribution implementation of the local IT strategy as well as quality assurance, establishing and continuously improving best practices and transfer of knowledge across the unit will also be important elements of the job.

WE LOOK FOR

We look for candidates who are willing to engage in both the IT and business aspects of DG ECFIN's core activities. The candidate should be able to lead a team and be flexible enough to adapt quickly to changing environment and requirements. The ability to build and maintain good interpersonal relations with business users is essential, as well as the capacity to solve operational problems in a dynamic working environment.

Desirable skills and experience include: extensive experience in delivering IT solutions based on Commission standards in the domain of PHP/MySQL/Symfony application development and QlikSense BI solutions, experience in management of a technical team, ability to liaise and communicate efficiently with stakeholders. Knowledge of a performance-based instrument such as RRF is a clear asset.

Previous experience as an IT project manager is mandatory, as well as technical lead of a team of IT developers. At least 10 years of experience in the development of IT applications is required. Good knowledge of data(base) and monitoring scoreboard technologies is mostly welcomed. The candidate should be able to quickly work both independently and within a team given the time constraint in view of a peak period of RRF in 2026. The candidate should therefore have the ability to work under heavy time constraints for the coming year.

The official should have a good command of English/French for the performance of the duties.
