

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Information and Communication Assistant

Directorate-General for Digital Services (DG DIGIT) of the European Commission

Selection reference: DIGIT/COM/2025/2473

Domain: Information Technology

Where: Unit DIGIT.R1 – Organisation Development and Communication, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b – Assistant

Grade range: AST1-3

Publication deadline: 16.12.2025 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

Unit R1 steers the development of DIGIT through cross-directorate change activities and through strategic planning and programming, sound internal governance and internal control. These activities will enable the transformation of DIGIT's internal processes, tools and culture in line with DIGIT's objectives and priorities. The unit leads the internal and external communication with the various stakeholders. R1 also coordinates (inter)institutional relations and audits. The communication, coordination and change management activities will ensure that DIGIT can deliver the services and support needed by customers.

The unit consists of 3 sectors:

- Communication and engagement
- Transformation
- Internal control and institutional matters

The successful candidate will join the Communication sector, which leads the communication of the DG, raising awareness about who DIGIT is and what we work on internally in DIGIT (internal communication), facilitating the adoption of new digital ways of working by all staff (external communication), and raising the awareness about the digital transformation efforts of the Commission with external audiences (external communication).

WE PROPOSE

We offer a unique position to contribute to the communication strategy of DIGIT. The successful candidate will join a dynamic team that coordinates and supports the internal and external communication and engagement activities in DIGIT. The position will focus on the external communication of the DG.

The successful candidate will perform the following tasks:

- Support the planning and implementation of internal and external communication campaigns on digital topics.
- Contribute with original and creative ideas for storytelling, layout, and content presentation across communication platforms.
- Prepare press releases, statements, and media materials.
- Serve as a liaison between DIGIT and the Spokesperson's Office of the Commission in coordinating requests and preparing lines-to-take for the media.
- Manage and monitor official social media accounts.
- Draft articles and support the production of newsletters, ensuring clear, engaging, and well-structured content.
- Assist in the planning and execution of events, such as conferences, seminars, etc.
- Support the work of Senior Management by preparing speeches, programmes, and briefing notes.
- Liaise with internal departments to gather and verify information for communication outputs.

WE LOOK FOR

The successful candidate should have:

- Strong written and verbal communication skills in English (additional languages an asset).
- Familiarity with media relations, event coordination, and public communication.
- Experience in social media management and digital content creation.
- A good understanding of digital topics and technologies (e.g. Cloud, AI, open source, etc.);
- A sound understanding of the Commission's structure, context and policy areas.
- Very good inter-personal and communication skills;
- Ability to draft quickly and clearly in English.
- Ability to craft compelling narratives.

We are looking for a highly motivated colleague, who is very dynamic and well organised with a strong sense of team spirit and having a positive mindset. The working language is primarily English.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV
2. completed application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to DIGIT-R1@ec.europa.eu indicating the selection reference DIGIT/COM/2025/2473 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.
