

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta,

Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Administrative Assistant to the Head of Unit

Directorate-General for Education, Youth, Sport and Culture (DG EAC) of the European Commission

Selection reference: EAC/COM/2025/3003

Domain: Education

Where: Unit EAC.C.4 – “Digital Education”, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b – Assistant

Grade range: AST1-3

Publication deadline: 11.02.2026 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

The unit drives digital education policy with a view to increase its overall effectiveness, coherence and synergies across the EU. We are responsible for the implementation of the Digital Education Action Plan 2021-2027 (DEAP), the STEM Education Strategic Plan (science, technology, engineering, and mathematics) and the upcoming 2030 Roadmap on the future of digital education and skills. We work closely with a number of Commission services in a whole of government manner. We partner with the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA) and external stakeholders; and work closely with Member States through the open method of coordination and new modes of policy development (agile and co-creation). The working atmosphere is dynamic and collaborative, offering significant scope for initiative, personal growth and further development of skills and experience.

WE PROPOSE

As an administrative assistant to the Head of Unit, the jobholder will have an interesting and dynamic role in providing general support to the Head of Unit in the management of the unit. Duties include administrative, organisational and support tasks such as monitoring workflow and deadlines (unit's functional mailbox, ARES), coordinating replies to briefings (BASIS), interservice consultations (DECIDE) and Parliamentary questions, and managing missions (MIPS). This work allows for a wide range of tasks and encourages many contacts with the other units of the DG but also outside the DG. Close collaboration and interaction with the Head of Unit and the whole team are essential.

WE LOOK FOR

A motivated, proactive, resilient and well-organised person with excellent administrative skills and a high sense of initiative, team spirit, responsibility and discretion, and who is able to work independently whenever needed. The ideal candidate should have excellent coordination and organization skills, precision to ensure strict follow-up of deadlines, the ability to manage several tasks at the same time, a good sense of initiative as well as a service-oriented and problem-solving mindset. Experience in planning, resource administration and performance monitoring would be valuable. Adequate IT skills are required and hands-on experience with various Commission IT tools and decision-making procedures is considered an asset. Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to maintain and develop good relations with colleagues inside and outside the unit is required. Excellent written and spoken English are required. The ability to prepare clear analytical reports and present complex information in an accessible format is important.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV
2. completed application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to EAC-C4-VACANCY@ec.europa.eu indicating the selection reference EAC/COM/2025/3003 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.

➤ What about the selection steps?

The post was published internally within the Commission, inter-institutionally, and brought to the attention of competition laureates.

In accordance with Article 29 of the Staff Regulations, applications from Commission officials, officials from other Institutions, and laureates of competitions have priority³. If these candidates do not best fit the requirements for the position, the Commission can recruit a temporary agent.

For temporary agents under Article 2(a) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, the post is published directly on the EPSO website, without mandatory prior internal publication.

A selection panel will choose a limited number of candidates for interview, based on the CV and application form that they submitted. Due to the large volume of applications, we may receive, only candidates selected for the next step of the selection phase will be notified.

For operational reasons and in order to complete the selection procedure as quickly as possible in the interest of the candidates and of the institution, the selection procedure will be carried out in English and possibly in another language.

2. Recruitment

The candidate selected for recruitment will be requested to supply documentary evidence in support of the statements made in their application.

The successful candidate will be required to undergo a mandatory pre-recruitment medical check-up, carried out by the Commission.

➤ Type of contract and working conditions

The place of employment will be Brussels.

In case the successful candidate is not an official or a competition laureate, they will be recruited as a temporary agent under Article 2(b) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, in function group AST.

³ Officials from the Commission or other Institutions are invited to use the standard channels (Sysper or inter-institutional vacancy portal).

➤ Grade

The recruitment grade, as well as the step in that grade, will be determined in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2025\)4716 on policies for the engagement and use of temporary agents and with Commission Decision C\(2013\)8970 laying down the criteria applicable to classification in step on engagement.

The recruitment grade will be calculated based on the qualifications and the number of years of professional experience, according to Art. 13 of the Commission Decision C(2025)4716. Higher grades may be granted exceptionally.

The duration of the 1st contract will be up to 4 years. The contract might then be extended only once for a maximum of 2 years and in the interest of service, in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2025\)4716 on policies for the engagement and use of temporary agents.

All new staff have to successfully complete a 9-month probationary period.

The pay of staff members consists of a basic salary supplemented with specific allowances, including, where applicable, expatriation and family allowances. The provisions guiding the calculation of these allowances can be consulted in the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants. As a member of staff of the European institutions, your pay is subject to a tax raised by those institutions.

The European Commission applies a policy of equal opportunities and non-discrimination in accordance with Article 1d of the Staff Regulations.
