

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

¹ Please note that the list of underrepresented Member States may be subject to future amendment based on potential data changes over time.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Legal Service of the European Commission

Selection reference: SJ/COM/2025/2919

Domain: Law

Where: SJ. E COMP team, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b – Administrative agent

Grade range: AST/SC1-SC2

Publication deadline: 19.01.2026 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

The Legal Service is an internal, horizontal Commission Service. The mission of the Legal Service is twofold: to give legal advice to the Commission and its various departments and to represent the Commission before the European, national and international Courts.

The Legal Service is mainly divided into 14 "Teams". Each Team is headed by a Head of Team (Director level) who reports directly to the Director-General.

The "Competition and Mergers Team" (CONC) provides legal advice to the Commission, to DG Competition and other Services on issues of competition and merger law and represents the Commission in all legal proceedings in the fields of competition and mergers.

WE PROPOSE

A position involving a variety of secretarial and administrative tasks in a pleasant and challenging working environment, as well as the possibility to learn more about the legal side of the procedures and get a good overview of the way in which the Commission fulfils its missions in the areas of competition and mergers.

In addition to the usual administrative tasks, the candidate will closely assist the lawyers in their advisory role (inter-service consultations), in their role as agent of the Commission (legal proceedings) and with any other professional commitments. These tasks include monitoring and following-up deadlines, checking the formats of the documents to be sent to the Court, uploading these documents in the appropriate IT-applications, assisting the Commission agents in their electronic research of useful documentation and contributing to a good information flow and recordkeeping in the Team.

This position generally allows for regular working hours and a good work life balance.

The Legal Service provides all the necessary training about its specific procedures and tools.

Jan 12, 2022 3:15 PM

A mentor is appointed for every new staff member of the Legal Service.

The Legal Service is housed in the Berlaymont building and can therefore be easily reached by public transport. The Legal Service applies an equal opportunities policy.

WE LOOK FOR

An open-minded, motivated, structured and well-organised colleague who enjoys teamwork and has a strong sense of responsibility and confidentiality.

A very good knowledge of Word is essential. Good knowledge of Ares, Decide, MIPS and Poetry is desirable. Experience in using of databases, in handling confidential information, and in dealing with court proceedings would constitute additional assets.

The ideal candidate should have a very good command of English and a good knowledge of French. The knowledge of any other EU language would be an additional asset.
