Domain: External relations

Where: Unit TRADE.G.5 – “Investigations IV. Relations with third countries”, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b – Administrative agent

Grade range: AST/SC1-2

Publication deadline: 11.2.2026 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

DG Trade and Economic Security has the task of conducting the EU trade policy, one of the exclusive competences of the EU. Trade policy plays a critical role in building global partnership, enhancing the EU's economic competitiveness, and defending the EU from unfair trade practices and threats to its economic security.

As an important part of its trade policy, the EU makes use of available autonomous tools such as the EU Trade Defence Instruments (TDIs) (anti-dumping, anti-subsidy and safeguards). These tools protect our citizens and industries against unfair trade practices at international level – their increased use in recent years, in a changing global context, is a testimony of a more assertive European Union, necessary to put globalisation to good account and to ensure a level playing field in international trade.

The EU policy of TDIs and their implementation and execution are centralized in Directorate G of DG TRADE, under the supervision of the Chief Trade Enforcement Officer. Unit TRADE.G.5 is composed of 30 colleagues working in three different Sections. Two Sections are responsible for carrying out trade defence investigations against unfairly priced imports into the EU; a third Section is in charge of monitoring third countries' trade defence actions against the EU and responsible for the EU safeguard policy.

WE PROPOSE

We propose an interesting position, with varied tasks, in a pleasant and cooperative working environment with excellent team spirit across the three sections of the Unit. The successful candidate will work as case secretary in trade defence anti-dumping and anti-subsidy investigations in one of the Sections of the Unit.

She/He will be part of a dynamic team of eight officials who carry out TDI investigations. She/He will support the management of the section and carry out logistical and administrative tasks. Overall, typical tasks comprise of preparing official documents (e.g. Regulations and Notes Verbales), organising meetings and missions, requesting and managing translations, monitoring deadlines, preparing and launching inter-service consultations and adoption procedures, assisting in recruitment and managing the functional mailboxes. The case secretary is an integral part of case-teams, ensuring that the relevant procedures are applied correctly and timely, in the preparation and conduct of trade defence investigations, and adoption of regulations. The tasks also include contacts with internal and external stakeholders.

In addition to a very pleasant working environment, the position also offers an excellent opportunity for professional and personal growth.

Unit TRADE.G.5 keeps gender balance and a respectful and mutually supportive working atmosphere.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a dynamic and highly motivated colleague who is willing to go the extra mile in working under tight deadlines and time pressure. The successful candidate needs to possess excellent organisational skills, be proficient in using IT applications and diligent in handling confidential information and procedural deadlines. Ideally, she/he will have prior experience in managing legislative procedures and comitology. Knowledge of trade defence investigations would be a big asset. Team spirit, accuracy, willingness to learn and sense of responsibility are essential.

Knowledge of Commission applications (Decide, Ares, MIPS, Sysper, ePoetry, Legiswrite) is an advantage. The unit is mainly working in English; knowledge of other languages will be an asset.
