

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

¹ Please note that the list of underrepresented Member States may be subject to future amendment based on potential data changes over time.

Linguist Agent

Directorate-General of Translation (DGT) of the European Commission

Selection reference: DGT/COM/2026/402

Domain: Languages

Where: Unit DGT.B.3.ET.1, Luxembourg

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b/2d – Linguist agent

Grade range: AST/SC1-2

Publication deadline: 11.3.2026 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

Unit DGT.B.3.ET.1 is one of the Estonian language units in the Commission's Directorate-General for Translation (DGT). The Unit ET.1 is based in Luxembourg and has currently 29 translators and 4 linguist assistants/agents. We are part of the Estonian language community (ET LC) within the B.3 Department in DGT, we work in close contact with the other, also Luxembourg-based Estonian translation unit, as well as other colleagues within the language community and the department. We mainly translate documents concerning law, finance, economics, external relations, administration, defence industry and space, communications networks, content and technology, trade, statistics and enterprise, into Estonian from all EU official languages.

WE PROPOSE

You will join our team of linguist assistants/agents and focus on the unit's general workflow. The job entails mastering specific IT tools used in the DGT, and providing support to translators and workflow managers, including performing tasks related to the treatment of translations (pre-processing and post-processing), communicating with translators, requesters and colleagues within and outside the DGT by telephone, e-mail and M365 applications. Occasionally you may have to fulfil administrative tasks as well.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a colleague with an excellent command of written and spoken Estonian. A good knowledge of English is a prerequisite, while French would be considered an advantage. You will work as part of a dynamic team in a predominantly Estonian-speaking environment. You should have solid IT proficiency, especially with translation tools, along with good organisational skills. You will need to be able to integrate into the team but also work autonomously and under pressure when needed.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV
2. completed application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to Helen.Leht@ec.europa.eu indicating the selection reference DGT/COM/2026/402 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.

ANNEX

1. Selection

➤ Am I eligible to apply?

You must meet the following eligibility criteria when you validate your application:

Our rules provide that you can only be recruited as a temporary agent at the European Commission if you:

General criteria:
