

MAKE A DIFFERENCE - JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging positions with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Where: RTD D – Directorate People: Health and Society, Brussels

Function Group: FG III

Contract Type: 3b

Express your interest until: 27.02.2026 – 12.00 (noon, Brussels time)

WE ARE

The ‘People: Health and Society’ Directorate addresses the challenges posed to human health and well-being, as well as citizens’ democratic participation and engagement in a fair and inclusive, ageing, increasingly digitalised and globalised society, which is exposed to environmental degradation and climate change and faced with other socio-economic and political transitions, including institutional change for inclusive gender equality. Overall, its activities aim at helping to achieve the sustainable development goals, whilst also contributing to the competitiveness of Europe’s creative, digital and health industries and services, as well as to fair, inclusive and resilient societies.

WE PROPOSE

We are offering an interesting and varied position in a pleasant and cooperative working environment that boasts an excellent team spirit.

The successful candidate will join the Directorate People: Health and Society within the Directorate-General for Research and Innovation, serving as an Administrative Assistant to the Director. She/he will provide high-level administrative and logistical support to the Director.

The work will involve a wide range of tasks, specifically:

- Assisting the Director in organisational matters of the Directorate and its overall management
- Ensuring the follow-up of Director’s decisions
- Ensuring the coordination of tasks related to issues involving Directorates’ units; coordinating and follow up on briefing requests
- Ensuring a broad communication within the Directorate
- Supervising the Directorate’s mission budget
- Assisting the Director by managing their agenda, phone calls, e-mails, and documents using IT tools
- Arranging meetings, coordinating logistics, and receiving visitors
- Coordinating comprehensive document management, including follow-up and ensuring all deadlines are met
- Preparing and organizing the Director’s missions

- Supporting the Director with human resources and time management; organising of yearly appraisal dialogues, serving as a contact point with the HR Correspondent
- Team support: serving as back-up for the other administrative assistant

WE LOOK FOR

The office of the Director for Directorate People: Health and Society is looking for a new colleague to complete the staff that consists of the Director, a policy officer, and one administrative assistant. We are seeking a dynamic and proactive person who demonstrates a strong sense of responsibility and a great team spirit.

The ideal candidate should have excellent organizational and coordination skills, be able to take initiative, and thrive when working under time pressure.

Essential skills and experience:

- IT proficiency: experience and good knowledge of IT tools, such as MS Office, SharePoint, and virtual meeting tools
- Administrative excellence: a keen interest in the Directorate's work and a passion for establishing, implementing, and continually improving administrative procedures and quality mechanisms
- Language: very good written and oral communication skills in English. Good knowledge of French would be a significant asset
