Domain: Competition

Where: Unit COMP/D2 „Antitrust – financial services “, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b – Administrator

Grade range: AD5-7

Publication deadline: 03.03.2026 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

Our team is responsible for enforcing EU antitrust rules in the financial services sector, with a focus on capital markets, insurance and banking. In addition to investigative work that can result in prohibition and/or commitment decisions, we promote advocacy within the sector, so that regulation can take into account competition law objectives and competition principles become central to undertakings' compliance programs. We also cooperate closely with national competition and regulatory authorities in individual cases and through the European Competition Network's financial services subgroup. This sector has a rich regulatory background and tends to evolve at a fast-pace, also due to the digital and green transitions. These features make antitrust case-work in this sector all the more relevant, intellectually challenging and varied. We are a small but dynamic team that is working in an integrated manner together with unit D1 (which is focused on payments). We value and encourage team-work, information sharing, and open discussions. Our objective is to create an informal working environment that is stimulating, productive and fulfilling.

WE PROPOSE

We are seeking to hire a case handler who will work on antitrust cases as well as horizontal files in this key sector of the economy. The main priority is case-work, which involves the legal and economic assessment of the conduct of undertakings with a view to investigating and addressing potential breaches of EU competition rules. This work necessitates ongoing interactions with parties to the investigation, third parties and national competition authorities as well as other European and national supervisory authorities. It also entails close collaboration with the internal policy, chief economist and Legal Service teams as well as with other Commission Services. The preparation of replies to requests from citizens and Members of the European Parliament regarding this high-profile sector also forms part of the day-to-day work. We promote an autonomous way of working in the unit, therefore, the position has real scope for professional and personal development.

WE LOOK FOR

The ideal candidate has a solid economic or legal background and the ability to push forward complex anti-trust investigations in a timely manner and to a high standard. She/He should have professional experience in applying competition law or competition economics in antitrust cases, and a very good understanding of the substantive and procedural issues arising in antitrust cases. The job requires very good analytical, drafting and communication skills. A strong sense of initiative, good organizational skills and the ability to work both independently and within teams, are essential. The job necessitates an excellent command of English. An academic background and/or professional experience related to the financial services sector is an additional asset.
