

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Administrative Support Agent – Case and Secretarial Assistance (Antitrust)

Directorate-General Competition (DG COMP) of the European Commission

Selection reference: COMP/COM/2026/225

Domain: Administrative Support

Where: Unit COMP/D1 – „antitrust: payment systems“, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b –Administrative agent

Grade range: SC1-2

Publication deadline: 03.03.2026 – 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

If you want to work in a very interesting unit in DG Competition dealing with a fast-moving sector, come to us. Our main mission is to enforce EU antitrust rules in the payments sector. This sector is facing important technological and regulatory developments, and traditional operators such as banks and credit card companies are challenged by large technology companies and financial start-ups (Fintechs). In this evolving landscape, we are committed to keeping these markets competitive for the benefit of consumers. We work on high profile competition cases with direct relevance to EU citizens.

Our unit works in close interaction with unit D2, the other anti-trust unit of Directorate D, which is in charge of enforcing the EU antitrust rules in the banking, insurance and capital markets sectors. We have joint unit meetings and case teams. We value and actively encourage team-work, information sharing, and open discussions. Our objective is to create an informal working environment that is stimulating, productive and fulfilling.

WE PROPOSE

A position as Case Assistant/Administrative Support Agent with real scope for professional development.

The Case Assistant is part of the case teams in Unit D1 and Unit D2 and assists in preparing all necessary administrative steps for the handling of the units anti-trust cases, respecting all relevant procedural standards. The Case Assistant monitors deadlines and workflow in anti-trust cases; creates and administers case-related documents; manages the electronic case files using the case management application; organizes meetings with external actors; and communicates orally and in writing with third parties and other Commission services.

The Case Assistant takes part in discussions and participates in working groups regarding the development of procedures. The Case Assistant carries out various administrative tasks such as diary-keeping, filtering telephone calls, translation requests, making travel arrangements and will be part of a team of assistants supporting the work of Units D1 and D2. Depending on the current needs of the unit(s), the Case Assistant may be asked to do also secretariat work to support the day to day business of the unit(s).

WE LOOK FOR

The ideal candidate is a pro-active and motivated colleague, with very strong organisational skills, showing a high degree of responsibility, able to work as part of a team but also independently, reliable and with attention to detail. S/he has very good communication/interpersonal skills and a strong command of English, knowledge of other Community languages would be an advantage. S/he is well familiar with using MS Office (Teams, Word, Excel, Powerpoint, Outlook), and with databases. If this is you, do apply!

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV
2. completed application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to COMP-TA-APPLICATION@ec.europa.eu indicating the selection reference COMP/COM/2026/225 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.
