

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

PROJECT AGENT – SUPPORT FOR SERVICE DELIVERY AND DIGITAL SOLUTIONS

Directorate-General International Partnerships (DG INTPA) of the European Commission

Selection reference: INTPA/COM/2026/69

Domain*: Support Staff

Where: Unit INTPA.R.5 – Data and Information Technology, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b – Project agent

Grade range: AST/SC1-2

Publication deadline: 16.02.2026 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

The Directorate General for International Partnerships (DG INTPA) is responsible for formulating the European Union's development policy and implementing the EU's external assistance instruments. DG INTPA has a continuous collaboration with the RELEX family and DIGIT (as solution partner) at strategic level. The overall objective of Directorate R "Resources" is to ensure the provision of the resources necessary for the sound functioning of INTPA both in Headquarters and in Delegations. Within Directorate R, the main mission of the "Data and Information Technology" unit (INTPA.R5) is to ensure that the IT solutions delivered are aligned to the business objectives in order to better support the overall DG mission. In this respect, there is a continuous collaboration with business managers (from DG INTPA, DG ENEST, MENA and FPI), especially when designing new IT systems capabilities and releasing them into production. Other INTPA.R5 important objectives at governance and management levels are information systems governance, portfolio management (including IT security and risk management) and business processes governance. The unit is also responsible for IT systems management throughout their entire lifecycle (including RELEX joint-ownership systems with DG ENEST, MENA and FPI). The unit is acting as liaison with DIGIT and other Commission forums and boards on significant topics affecting the IT domain (e.g. IT governance, IT solutions delivery etc.), ensuring an efficient and proper use of INTPA's IT resources

WE PROPOSE

Join our dynamic team as a Team & Communication agent within the Service Delivery and Digital Solutions sectors, where you will play a vital role in the smooth coordination and administration of our projects and services. In this pivotal position, you will ensure efficient project execution by verifying time sheets, handling absences, and maintaining adherence to project deadlines. You will work closely with HR to oversee training paths and contribute to the synchronization of our teams. You will be contributing to communication and documentation activities. Additionally, you will serve as a backup for official tasks, providing essential support for continuity in our operations. This role offers a unique opportunity to collaborate with stakeholder and leaders, promoting effective communication and fostering teamwork. You will be at the heart of our service delivery, driving the success of our digital solutions.

WE LOOK FOR

We are seeking a detail-oriented and proactive individual with a strong background in coordination and communication. You should have experience in managing HR-related processes, such as time sheet verification and absence management, and be adept at maintaining project timelines. Exceptional organizational skills and the ability to facilitate team synchronization are essential. We are looking for someone who can seamlessly support our digital solutions through technical and administrative tasks, serving as a reliable backup for official duties. Strong communication skills are crucial, as you will act as the central point of contact for project-related communications. If you are committed to enhancing service delivery in an international cooperation and development context, we invite you to bring your expertise and join our team.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

In accordance with Article 29 of the Staff Regulations, applications from Commission officials, officials from other Institutions, and laureates of competitions have priority³. If these candidates do not best fit the requirements for the position, the Commission can recruit a temporary agent.

For temporary agents under Article 2(a) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, the post is published directly on the EPSO website, without mandatory prior internal publication.

A selection panel will choose a limited number of candidates for interview, based on the CV and application form that they submitted. Due to the large volume of applications, we may receive, only candidates selected for the next step of the selection phase will be notified.

For operational reasons and in order to complete the selection procedure as quickly as possible in the interest of the candidates and of the institution, the selection procedure will be carried out in English and possibly in another language.

2. Recruitment

The candidate selected for recruitment will be requested to supply documentary evidence in support of the statements made in their application.

The successful candidate will be required to undergo a mandatory pre-recruitment medical check-up, carried out by the Commission.

➤ Type of contract and working conditions

The place of employment will be Brussels.

In case the successful candidate is not an official or a competition laureate, they will be recruited as a temporary agent under Article 2(b) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, in function group AST/SC.

³ Officials from the Commission or other Institutions are invited to use the standard channels (Sysper or inter-institutional vacancy portal).

➤ Grade

The recruitment grade, as well as the step in that grade, will be determined in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2025\)4716 on policies for the engagement and use of temporary agents and with Commission Decision C\(2013\)8970 laying down the criteria applicable to classification in step on engagement.

The recruitment grade will be calculated based on the qualifications and the number of years of professional experience, according to Art. 13 of the Commission Decision C(2025)4716. Higher grades may be granted exceptionally.

The duration of the 1st contract will be up to 4 years. The contract might then be extended only once for a maximum of 2 years and in the interest of service, in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2025\)4716 on policies for the engagement and use of temporary agents.

All new staff have to successfully complete a 9-month probationary period.

The pay of staff members consists of a basic salary supplemented with specific allowances, including, where applicable, expatriation and family allowances. The provisions guiding the calculation of these allowances can be consulted in the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants. As a member of staff of the European institutions, your pay is subject to a tax raised by those institutions.

The European Commission applies a policy of equal opportunities and non-discrimination in accordance with Article 1d of the Staff Regulations.
