

MAKE A DIFFERENCE - JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging positions with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to try several areas or move between different policy areas in your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Domain: External Relations, Brussels

Function Group: FG IV

Contract Type: 3b

Express your interest until: 23/04/2026 - 12.00 (noon, Brussels time)

WE ARE

Unit INTPA.G.1 is a dynamic and committed unit working for the promotion of human rights, gender equality and democratic governance worldwide.

Among other, the unit provides quality thematic support to staff in Headquarters and EU Delegations to ensure a human rights-based approach, gender mainstreaming across all actions and financing instruments, and sustainable democracy support, justice, rule of law and anti-corruption reforms and initiatives. The unit contributes to an enabling environment for the implementation of the Global Gateway strategy in partner countries. The unit is also responsible for contributing to the design and implementation of the Action Plan on Human Rights and Democracy and the Gender Action Plan (GAP III). It is a gender-balanced unit of around 30 people.

WE PROPOSE

The policy officer will contribute to the identification, analysis, quality review and implementation of policies and programmes to advance gender equality and women's and girls' empowerment, including the implementation of the GAP III and the upcoming GAP 2028 – 34 (GAP IV).

He/she will provide thematic support and financial expertise to mainstream gender equality and women empowerment in Global Gateway priority sectors and investment initiatives, including through innovative financing and the European Fund for Sustainable Development Plus (ESFD+) and the Global Gateway Investment Hub.

In this context, he/she will liaise and work with geographical and horizontal directorates, delegations, Development Finance Institution and Member States development agencies, for instance on mainstreaming gender equality and women empowerment in blending operations and guarantee agreements.

He/she will further contribute to sectoral policies (including on the care economy), develop thematic guidance (including on gender responsive budgeting), training (on gender lens investing) and knowledge materials and provide quality support to geographical directorates and delegations.

WE LOOK FOR

The post holder will have at least 5 years of relevant professional experience in one or more in the following domain: Gender equality, External Relation/cooperation aid, Economics. Professional experience related to the design and implementation of Innovative Development Finance instruments and mechanisms, and an academic background in a field relevant to the position (e.g. macroeconomics, finance) will be an advantage.

In addition, having at least 3 years of relevant experience in managing international cooperation programmes in one or more of the domains listed above would be an asset.
