

MAKE A DIFFERENCE - JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

HRM Assistant - Law

Directorate-General for Human Resources & Security (DG HR) of the European Commission

Selection reference: HR/COM/2026/747

Domain: Law

Where: Unit HR.D.3 – “Medical Service”. Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b - Assistant

Grade range: AST1-3

Publication deadline: 06.05.2026 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

Directorate HR.D, “Workplace & Wellbeing”, designs and implements, at corporate level, human resources policies and practices which aim to ensure that staff maintains a high level of physical and mental health and wellbeing and that the workplace is safe, comfortable, environmentally-friendly and provides for a proper work/life balance. HR.D comprises seven units (including one in Luxembourg and one in Ispra) and two Advisers (for social impact & engagement, and for medical policy questions respectively).

The Medical Service Brussels (HR.D.3) is one of the Commission’s three occupational medicine services and is composed of more than 50 statutory and external professionals with different profiles (general practitioners, occupational physicians, psychiatrists, psychologists, nurses, social workers, medical laboratory technologists and administrative staff), organised in 4 sectors. Its overall mission is to promote the physical and mental health of active staff members and to provide medical advice to the institution and other stakeholders. Its activities include:

- Occupational medicine (including ergonomics and return to work after long-term absence);
- Preventive medicine (recruitment visits, annual visits, risk assessment);
- Travel medicine (delegation departures, missions);
- Support and guidance for staff in difficulty and to managers;
- Biological analyses;
- Basic medical care provided in the dispensary;
- General medical advice to the institution;
- The organisation of prevention campaigns (e.g. vaccinations) and health promotion;
- Invalidity procedures.

Given the mandate of the unit and the need to provide in-presence medical care, regular presence in the office is required.

WE PROPOSE

We are seeking to recruit a HRM Assistant with a focus on law.

The successful candidate will assist the Medical Service units of DG HR in all aspects related to the protection of personal and medical data in coordination with the Data Protection Coordinator (DPC) of DG HR. You will provide legal and administrative advice on all processes managed by the Medical Service units of DG HR.

WE LOOK FOR

The successful candidate will play a vital role in providing legal analysis, advice, and assistance within the remit of the unit. You will assist in drafting notes and responses to Article 90 (complaints), coordinate replies to requests for access to medical and personal files and support the Head of Unit in interpreting data protection legal frameworks relevant to the Medical Service. You will also liaise and collaborate with other DG HR legal services, addressing cases tied to the Medical Service's activities.

In addition, you will take charge of information and document management, ensuring efficient case management within the unit. This involves allocating and tracking incoming messages and documents to ensure deadlines are met, as well as responding to information requests and conducting research across both internal and external databases.

Your duties will also encompass operational and administrative support, where you'll contribute to the management and preparation of administrative files, oversee document registration in ARES - particularly those with litigation potential - and maintain a strict adherence to timelines.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV
2. completed application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to HR-D3-APPLICATIONS@ec.europa.eu indicating the selection reference HR/COM/2026/747 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.
