

MAKE A DIFFERENCE - JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging positions with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden<sup>1</sup>. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

WE ARE

We are a dynamic team working in the highly challenging environment of information and communication technologies. Our Unit DIGIT R.3 – Procurement and Legal Compliance – manages ICT procurement and contracts in areas such as cloud services, hardware, software and ICT services.

The unit is responsible for managing procurement procedures (open, negotiated and restricted), leading negotiations with suppliers, drafting contracts and handling pre-litigious situations. It is one of the largest awarding services in the European Commission, with annual procurement volumes exceeding €2.5 billion.

In addition, the unit coordinates and supports DG DIGIT's activities in the fields of data protection, document management and access to documents, including hosting the functions of Data Protection Coordinator, Access to Documents Coordinator and Document Management Officer.

The unit is composed of approximately 40 staff members and is based mainly in Brussels, with a small presence in Luxembourg.

WE PROPOSE

Unit DIGIT R.3 is seeking an Administrative Assistant – Document Management Officer (DMO).

The successful candidate will provide specialised administrative and technical support in the area of Document and Information Management, contributing to the efficient organisation, accessibility and compliance of institutional documents and workflows.

The main tasks will include:

- Ensuring the registration, classification and lifecycle management of documents in line with applicable rules and policies
- Maintaining accurate filing systems, including version control and archiving of electronic and physical records
- Monitoring document retention, access and disposal requirements and supporting audit readiness
- Organising and structuring information across corporate tools to ensure consistency, accessibility and secure handling
- Applying metadata and classification principles to improve searchability and reuse of information
- Supporting knowledge management activities, including structuring and dissemination of information within collaborative platforms
- Coordinating with internal stakeholders to ensure efficient handling of documents and information across the unit
- Supporting the organisation and follow-up of workflows, including tracking actions and deliverables
- Assisting in the preparation of reports, statistics and summaries related to unit activities
- Contributing to continuous improvement of document and information management processes

The position offers a varied and intellectually stimulating work environment, with opportunities to collaborate across teams and contribute to the efficient functioning of the unit's activities.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a motivated and reliable administrative professional with a strong interest in document and information management.

The ideal candidate should have:

- A level of post-secondary education or secondary education with relevant professional experience
- Professional experience in document management, information management or administrative support (experience of at least 2 years is an asset)
- Good knowledge of document management principles, including classification, archiving and lifecycle management
- Experience with IT tools and office applications (e.g. MS Office, document management systems)
- Ability to organise and structure information in a clear and efficient manner
- Strong organisational skills and the ability to prioritise tasks and meet deadlines
- Good analytical and problem-solving skills
- Ability to work both autonomously and as part of a team
- Strong sense of confidentiality and attention to detail
- Good communication skills and ability to interact with different stakeholders

Excellent command of English (C1) is required. Knowledge of French (minimum B2) is an advantage.
