

MAKE A DIFFERENCE - JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

- monitor the execution and consumption of ongoing contracts;
 - manage the internal and external knowledge base (wiki) about the contract procedures, the use of framework contracts and other procurement modalities as well as the use of the different financial and budgetary systems related to contracts;
 - ensure compliance with the financial regulations, framework contracts, contracting and budgetary rules and procedures in place;
 - provide advice to operational units on the available procurement modalities;
 - assist operational units with planning their budgetary commitments and payments;
 - assist operational units with the execution of their budget programming. Prepare budget reservations in the budget management tool and monitor budgetary transactions;
 - follow-up on the invoices, the RAL and the payment forecasts;
 - ensure quality and coherence of financial and budgetary data in relevant systems and databases.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a dynamic, motivated and resilient colleague preferably with experience in procurement and contract management who likes to work in a team.

The ideal candidate

- is well organised
- has the capacity to work on multiple activities at the same time
- has solid communication skills
- is proactive and takes initiative
- is a strong team player who can actively contribute to a collaborative pool of specialists
- is able to deduct information about complex matters and to grasp administrative business processes in large organisations quickly.

Knowledge of procedures and financial rules in force in the Commission, understanding of procurement procedures, experience with ordering systems would be an advantage.
