

MAKE A DIFFERENCE - JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Secretary

Directorate-General for Mobility and Transport (DG MOVE) of the European Commission

Selection reference: MOVE/COM/2026/1033

Domain: Support staff

Where: Unit MOVE.D.1 - „Maritime Transport and Logistics“, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b - Administrative agent

Grade range: AST/SC1-2

Publication deadline: 15/06/2026 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

The Directorate-General for Mobility and Transport (DG MOVE) is responsible for developing and implementing European policies in the transport field. Within DG MOVE, Directorate D covers “Waterborne transport”, embracing Maritime transport and Logistics, Maritime safety and well as Ports, Security and Inland Navigation matters.

Unit D1 is responsible for Maritime Transport and Logistics. Its mission is to develop and implement the EU maritime transport and logistics policy to establish a well-functioning sustainable, effective and open market for maritime transport services and logistics. Unit D1 is also responsible for international relationships within the Directorate, including dialogues with major shipping partners, and for trade facilitation aspects, including digitalisation. It oversees the policy on the European Maritime Single Window environment, Fuel EU Maritime, CountEmissionsEU, the Electronic Freight Transport Information and the Combined Transport. It enforces EU legislation on the freedom to provide maritime transport services within and between Member States and with third countries.

The Unit currently consists of 23 persons.

WE PROPOSE

Unit D1 of DG MOVE is seeking to hire a secretary to complete the team of three assistants.

The position will consist of providing administrative support and secretarial assistance to the colleagues in the unit. The successful candidate will be responsible for agenda management, handling correspondence, managing mailing lists and functional mailboxes, and coordinating contributions to briefings and speeches.

Additionally, the role encompasses logistical support for meetings, expert groups, and conferences, including room reservations, ordering supplies, and document preparation.

The secretary will also act as an information point, welcoming visitors and ensuring the smooth flow of communication within the unit.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a dynamic, results-oriented, and proactive colleague contributing to a positive and collaborative working environment. The candidate should be able to work both independently and as part of a team, effectively prioritising and coordinating tasks and supporting colleagues.

The ideal profile for the job is someone with at least two years of relevant experience in operational and administrative support. The candidate should be well-versed in general administrative procedures, with the ability to manage records, documents and mail handling effectively. Proficiency in the most relevant EC procedures and IT tools would be an advantage.

The position also requires excellent communication skills in English. Knowledge of French and other EU official languages would be an advantage.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV
2. completed application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to MOVE-D1-SECRETARIAT@ec.europa.eu indicating the selection reference MOVE/COM/2026/1033 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.

ANNEX

1. Selection

➤ Am I eligible to apply?

You must meet the following eligibility criteria when you validate your application:

Our rules provide that you can only be recruited as a temporary agent at the European Commission if you:

General criteria:

- Are a citizen of a Member State of the EU and enjoy full rights as a citizen
- Have fulfilled any obligations imposed by applicable laws concerning military service
- Are physically fit to perform the duties linked to the post
- Produce the appropriate character references as to suitability for the performance of the duties.

Qualifications:

In order to be recruited for this position, you must have at least

- a level of post-secondary education attested by a diploma, or
- a level of secondary education attested by a diploma giving access to post-secondary education, and appropriate professional experience of at least three years.

Only qualifications issued or recognised as equivalent by EU Member State authorities (e.g. by the Ministry of Education) will be accepted. Furthermore, before recruitment, you will be required to provide the documents that corroborate the eligibility criteria (diplomas, certificates and other supporting documents).

Languages:

- have a thorough knowledge (minimum level C1) of one of the 24 official languages of the EU²
- AND a satisfactory knowledge (minimum level B2) of a second official language of the EU, to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties.

➤ What about the selection steps?

The post was published internally within the Commission, inter-institutionally, and brought to the attention of competition laureates.

² The official languages of the European Union are: BG (Bulgarian), CS (Czech), DA (Danish), DE (German), EL (Greek), EN (English), ES (Spanish), ET (Estonian), FI (Finnish), FR (French), GA (Irish), HR (Croatian), HU (Hungarian), IT (Italian), LT (Lithuanian), LV (Latvian), MT (Maltese), NL (Dutch), PL (Polish), PT (Portuguese), RO (Romanian), SK (Slovak), SL (Slovenian), SV (Swedish).

In accordance with Article 29 of the Staff Regulations, applications from Commission officials, officials from other Institutions, and laureates of competitions have priority³. If these candidates do not best fit the requirements for the position, the Commission can recruit a temporary agent.

For temporary agents under Article 2(a) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, the post is published directly on the EPSO website, without mandatory prior internal publication.

A selection panel will choose a limited number of candidates for interview, based on the CV and application form that they submitted. Due to the large volume of applications, we may receive, only candidates selected for the next step of the selection phase will be notified.

For operational reasons and in order to complete the selection procedure as quickly as possible in the interest of the candidates and of the institution, the selection procedure will be carried out in English and possibly in another language.

2. Recruitment

The candidate selected for recruitment will be requested to supply documentary evidence in support of the statements made in their application.

The successful candidate will be required to undergo a mandatory pre-recruitment medical check-up, carried out by the Commission.

➤ Type of contract and working conditions
