WE ARE

The unit is composed of 25 colleagues organised in three sectors:

- the revenue collection sector is structured in two teams responsible for income accounting and recovery by offsetting. Both teams are composed of three colleagues plus a Head of Sector.

Horizontal coordination of the unit is ensured by the Head of Unit, Deputy Head of Unit and a budget assistant, supported by an administrative assistant.

We are currently revising our working processes and modernising our way of working. We also contribute to the review of the organisation and effectiveness/efficiency of the recovery process across the Commission, especially given the deployment of the new SUMMA accounting system.
