

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Statistical Assistant - Malta desk

Directorate-General for Economic and Financial Affairs (DG ECFIN) of the European Commission

Selection reference: ECFIN/COM/2026/44

Domain: Economics, Finance and Statistics - Statistician

Where: Unit ECFIN.E1 – Italy and Malta, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b

Grade range: AST1-3

Publication deadline: 02.07.2026 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

The main objective of ECFIN.E.1 is to promote sound economic policies in the Member States covered by the Unit (Italy and Malta) that will support economic growth, sustainable public finances and achieve the broader economic objectives of the euro area and the EU. These include the implementation of the Recovery and Resilience Facility, which is at the heart of NextGenerationEU, building a deeper and fairer Economic and Monetary Union (EMU), and securing the green and digital transitions. In our main strands of work, we analyse economic developments and potential macroeconomic imbalances, implement fiscal surveillance, produce economic forecasts, and prepare policy assessments within the framework of the European Semester. In carrying out these tasks, the unit also engages in research work on policy-relevant economic issues and outreach in terms of publications, seminars, workshops or conferences. Based on our analytical and research work, we contribute to the formulation of policy advice to Member States, and we assess Member States' actions following economic policy recommendations or policy commitments. The Recovery and Resilience Facility is a vehicle to achieve our mission, and a significant share of the unit's work is currently devoted to its implementation.

WE PROPOSE

We are offering an interesting statistical assistant position in a friendly and stimulating working environment. The successful candidate will provide statistical support for the work related to monitoring, analysing and forecasting of economic and budgetary developments in the countries covered by the Unit, especially for Malta. S/he will collect statistical data from primary and secondary sources; develop, maintain and manage macroeconomic databases; and contribute to the reporting and presentation of economic and budgetary developments by producing tabular and graphical presentations. The successful candidate will cooperate closely with colleagues in the unit and beyond, particularly with horizontal units in ECFIN responsible for database and IT management and with Eurostat on statistical issues. S/he will also keep contacts on statistical issues with other EU and international institutions, as well with official and private sector bodies in the Member States. The successful candidate will also provide support to the work related to monitoring the implementation of Malta's Recovery and Resilience Plan. Analytical and research work going beyond these tasks is also highly encouraged and valued.

WE LOOK FOR

ECFIN.E.1 is an engaged and friendly unit. We are looking for a dynamic and motivated candidate with a solid economic and statistical background, and experience in database activities and statistical tasks. Strong proficiency in Excel is required, including working with large datasets, advanced formulas, Pivot Tables and automation techniques. S/he will need very good knowledge of PowerPoint and Word. Familiarity with national accounting systems and statistical sources in general is important. Familiarity with econometric software, such as R and Python, would also be an asset. A good command of English is required. Accuracy and an eye for detail are important. The new colleague is expected to be a team-player and to be well-organised.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV
2. completed application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to ECFIN-E1-APPLICATIONS@ec.europa.eu indicating the selection reference ECFIN/COM/2026/44 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.

ANNEX

1. Selection

➤ Am I eligible to apply?

You must meet the following eligibility criteria when you validate your application:

Our rules provide that you can only be recruited as a temporary agent at the European Commission if you:

General criteria:

- Are a citizen of a Member State of the EU and enjoy full rights as a citizen
- Have fulfilled any obligations imposed by applicable laws concerning military service
- Are physically fit to perform the duties linked to the post
- Produce the appropriate character references as to suitability for the performance of the duties.

Qualifications:

In order to be recruited for this position, you must have at least

- a level of post-secondary education attested by a diploma, or
- a level of secondary education attested by a diploma giving access to post-secondary education, and appropriate professional experience of at least three years.

Only qualifications issued or recognised as equivalent by EU Member State authorities (e.g. by the Ministry of Education) will be accepted. Furthermore, before recruitment, you will be required to provide the documents that corroborate the eligibility criteria (diplomas, certificates and other supporting documents).

Languages:

- have a thorough knowledge (minimum level C1) of one of the 24 official languages of the EU²
- AND a satisfactory knowledge (minimum level B2) of a second official language of the EU, to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties.

➤ What about the selection steps?

The post was published internally within the Commission, inter-institutionally, and brought to the attention of competition laureates.

In accordance with Article 29 of the Staff Regulations, applications from Commission officials, officials from other Institutions, and laureates of competitions have priority³. If these candidates do not best fit the requirements for the position, the Commission can recruit a temporary agent.

For temporary agents under Article 2(a) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, the post is published directly on the EPSO website, without mandatory prior internal publication.

A selection panel will choose a limited number of candidates for interview, based on the CV and application form that they submitted. Due to the large volume of applications, we may receive, only candidates selected for the next step of the selection phase will be notified.

For operational reasons and in order to complete the selection procedure as quickly as possible in the interest of the candidates and of the institution, the selection procedure will be carried out in English and possibly in another language.

2. Recruitment

The candidate selected for recruitment will be requested to supply documentary evidence in support of the statements made in their application.

The successful candidate will be required to undergo a mandatory pre-recruitment medical check-up, carried out by the Commission.

➤ Type of contract and working conditions

The place of employment will be Brussels.

In case the successful candidate is not an official or a competition laureate, they will be recruited as a temporary agent under Article 2(b) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, in function group AST.

³ Officials from the Commission or other Institutions are invited to use the standard channels (Sysper or inter-institutional vacancy portal).

➤ Grade

The recruitment grade, as well as the step in that grade, will be determined in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2025\)4716 on policies for the engagement and use of temporary agents and with Commission Decision C\(2013\)8970 laying down the criteria applicable to classification in step on engagement.

The recruitment grade will be calculated based on the qualifications and the number of years of professional experience, according to Art. 13 of the Commission Decision C(2025)4716. Higher grades may be granted exceptionally.

The duration of the 1st contract will be up to 4 years. The contract might then be extended only once for a maximum of 2 years and in the interest of service, in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2025\)4716 on policies for the engagement and use of temporary agents.

All new staff have to successfully complete a 9-month probationary period.

The pay of staff members consists of a basic salary supplemented with specific allowances, including, where applicable, expatriation and family allowances. The provisions guiding the calculation of these allowances can be consulted in the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants. As a member of staff of the European institutions, your pay is subject to a tax raised by those institutions.

The European Commission applies a policy of equal opportunities and non-discrimination in accordance with Article 1d of the Staff Regulations.
