Publication deadline: 07.07.2026 - 12.00 (Midday, Brussels time)

WE ARE

The Directorate-General for Health and Food Safety (DG SANTE) aims to deliver to Europeans the peace of mind that comes with access to healthcare, safe food to eat and protection against epidemics and diseases. Our goal is to build and maintain Europe's high standards on food and feed safety, food sustainability, animal and plant health, as well as the most affordable, accessible and high-quality health systems to deliver on these expectations.

Unit G5 "Food Hygiene, Feed and Fraud" is one of five units of Directorate G "Crisis preparedness in food, animals and plants" in DG SANTE.

The unit is split in various competence sectors (food hygiene, fraud, alert systems and feed). Though tasks are clearly attributed, an accent is put on teamwork and on backing-up, which occasionally implies support to others, at times of emergency situations such as when foodborne or feed-related outbreaks or incidents occur in Europe or in case of absence of a colleague.

WE PROPOSE

We offer an interesting and varied position as secretary to the feed team in the Unit. The team consists of highly motivated and committed colleagues working in a friendly and stimulating atmosphere who, through their work, impact on the daily lives of European citizens.

You will be given different administrative tasks in coordination with other members of the Unit's secretariat, offering support to Unit's members notably ensuring the administrative quality check of their documents.

Providing administrative support to the animal nutrition team, you will manage the setting-up of working group meetings involving all Member States and invitations thereto, the internal coordination of the notification of draft or adopted Regulations to the World Trade Organisation in the context of the Sanitary and Phytosanitary Agreement, incoming and outgoing mail, coordinate and monitor various actions and deadlines (like citizen's requests, parliamentary questions). You will ensure the circulation of documents and information to the Unit. When relevant, the organisation of bilateral meetings with stakeholders and of security clearance for the access to the building will also be required. Finally, a mutual backing-up across the unit is organised and thus expected from any member of the team.

WE LOOK FOR

We look for a well-organised and proactive person.

He or she should be able to work autonomously, though in full cooperation with other members of the secretariat to ensure optimal coordination in delivering on the administrative tasks of the Unit. The candidate will have good command of Commission IT tools or otherwise have the capacity to develop his/her expertise. Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to maintain and develop good relations with colleagues, driven by a real team spirit, will be essential. Oral and written communication skills, in English, are also essential, as well as flexibility and the ability to work under time pressure when the context becomes occasionally demanding.

The main language used is English. French is also very much used. Knowledge of other EU languages would be an asset.
