

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging positions with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Secretary to the Head of Unit

in DG RTD - European Commission

Job title: Secretary - to the Head of Unit

Domain: Science and Research

Where: Unit H.1- "Common Legal Support Service", Brussels

Function Group: FG II

Contract Type: 3b

Express your interest until: 21.08.2026 - 12.00 (noon, Brussels time)

WE ARE

The Common Legal Support Service (CLSS) is part of Directorate RTD (Research & Innovation)/H "Common Implementation Centre" in the Directorate-General for Research and Innovation. It drafts the Rules for Participation of the Framework Programmes and ensures their coherent interpretation for all implementing bodies. It acts as a liaison between the R&I DGs and the Legal Service and DG BUDGET. It provides legal advice on the programme design and implementation, drafts legal acts, and provides support during inter-institutional procedures. It also drafts commission decisions and guidelines. The CLSS offers legal advice and support covering the entire project life cycle and complaints. In addition, it provides legal advice on horizontal issues such as legal procedures, international cooperation, intellectual property rights, ethics and research integrity, and inter-institutional matters.

WE PROPOSE

A dynamic and central administrative role as Secretary to the Head of Unit, providing executive support directly to the management and serving as the operational backbone of the unit to ensure seamless daily workflows and optimal resource management. Main responsibilities include strategically managing the Head of Unit's daily schedule, anticipating priorities, coordinating meetings and organising missions (including booking arrangements and encoding in MIPS, internal tool for the management of the travels). This role acts as a central point of contact to streamline internal clerical workflows, foster smooth communication, and maintain operational efficiency across the entire team. Additionally, the position involves overseeing and following up on the lifecycle of incoming and outgoing official correspondence, ensuring precise archiving, tracking, and registration within the ARES application (document management tool). The chosen candidate will also provide essential backup support to the unit's other secretary by assisting with the management and follow up of Interservice consultations and briefing requests.

Furthermore, the successful candidate may also be required, as necessary, to perform administrative tasks to provide back-up support to the Director's secretariat or the secretariats of other units within the Directorate.

WE LOOK FOR

A highly organized, resilient, and proactive professional with a solid administrative track record in executive assistance or advanced office management who thrives in a fast-paced, structured environment. The ideal candidate has a strong working knowledge of the European Commission's administrative rules and procedures. Familiarity with corporate IT tools such as ARES (Document management), BASIS (Briefing tool), MIPS (Travels tool) and DECIDE (Decision-making tool) — or equivalent systems — would be considered a asset. Prior experience within a public administration or EU institution is highly valued. This role requires strong verbal and written communication skills in both English and French, with a natural talent for diplomacy, discretion, and teamwork. Candidates must demonstrate proven operational excellence, including the ability to work rapidly, accurately, and autonomously under tight deadlines while managing competing priorities. Finally, a strong sense of initiative, a dedicated service-minded attitude, and the flexibility to step in as a reliable backup for colleagues are essential for success in this position.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

With a view to guaranteeing equal access to all, the Commission recruits from an open database of spontaneous applications. The present call for interests aims at helping the recruiters to identify potentially interested candidates within this database.

In practice, to express your interest, please follow the subsequent two steps:

1. If you are not registered yet in the open EPSO database, please do so at the following address: CAST Permanent. Please select under selection procedures for contract agent the CAST permanent profile that best suits your education and experience.
2. You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:
 1. your CV
 2. completed application form.

Please send these documents to RTD-H1-CA-APPLICATIONS@ec.europa.eu by the publication deadline indicating the call for interest reference EC-2026/RTD/84250 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.
