

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging positions with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career;
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career;
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

¹ Please note that the list of underrepresented Member States may be subject to future amendment based on potential data changes over time.

Policy Analyst - Civil Military Relations

DG ECHO of the European Commission

Selection reference: ECHO/COM/2026/1456

Domain: External relations

Where: Unit A2 - Contingency Planning, Analysis and Situational Awareness, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b

Grade: AST 1-3

Publication deadline: 30.07.2026 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

ECHO A.2 identifies, analyses and prepares for potential events, situations or circumstances that could require cross-sectoral crisis coordination and emergency management interventions by the European Commission and in particular the Union Civil Protection Mechanism. This involves the analysis of trends or developments that influence the EU's vulnerability to risks and impact emergency management at EU level. The unit also coordinates activities across sectors in the Commission with the objective of preparing for and responding to crises. It does so, for example, via the preparation of operational and strategic-level playbooks describing various actions that would need to be carried out at different levels to coordinate and respond to large-scale incidents. The unit furthermore coordinates and develops civil-military cooperation for the DG as a whole and works on operational and strategic coordination between the ERCC, NATO and other relevant military actors. The unit ensures also information management before and during crises and provides early-warning tools and scientific analysis on natural, technological and man-made disasters or evolving threats, assesses satellite images and provides situational maps to prepare for and facilitate emergency response interventions. It also provides crisis information and analysis, including Integrated Situational Awareness and Analysis (ISAA) reports in the framework of activations of the Integrated Political Crisis Response Arrangements (IPCR) and the Solidarity Clause. It maintains and further develops early-warning systems in close cooperation with the Joint Research Centre (JRC).

WE PROPOSE

We propose an interesting and challenging position within a highly motivated and friendly team. The successful candidate will contribute to developing DG ECHO's activities in the field of crisis response and crisis management, notably supporting the implementation of the Preparedness Union Strategy, in particular the development of civil-military cooperation and exercising crisis management processes.

WE LOOK FOR

An experience of at least three years in the area of developing civil-military relations is essential. The ideal candidate is a colleague with strong interpersonal skills who is able to coordinate effectively amongst all stakeholders involved. We look for a colleague with a good sense of responsibility, ability to problem solve and flexibility for taking on new and evolving tasks. Excellent command of written and spoken English is essential; good knowledge of French is considered an asset.

ANNEX

1. Selection

➤ Am I eligible to apply?

You must meet the following eligibility criteria when you validate your application:

Our rules provide that you can only be recruited as a temporary agent at the European Commission if you:

General criteria:

- Are a citizen of a Member State of the EU and enjoy full rights as a citizen
- Have fulfilled any obligations imposed by applicable laws concerning military service
- Are physically fit to perform the duties linked to the post
- Produce the appropriate character references as to suitability for the performance of the duties.

Qualifications:

In order to be recruited for this position, you must have at least either a level of post-secondary education attested by a diploma, or a level of secondary education attested by a diploma giving access to post-secondary education, and appropriate professional experience of at least three years.

Only qualifications issued or recognised as equivalent by EU Member State authorities (e.g. by the Ministry of Education) will be accepted. Furthermore, before recruitment, you will be required to provide the documents that corroborate the eligibility criteria (diplomas, certificates and other supporting documents).

Languages:

- have a thorough knowledge (minimum level C1) of one of the 24 official languages of the EU²
- AND a satisfactory knowledge (minimum level B2) of a second official language of the EU, to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties.

² The official languages of the European Union are: BG (Bulgarian), CS (Czech), DA (Danish), DE (German), EL (Greek), EN (English), ES (Spanish), ET (Estonian), FI (Finnish), FR (French), GA (Irish), HR (Croatian), HU (Hungarian), IT (Italian), LT (Lithuanian), LV (Latvian), MT (Maltese), NL (Dutch), PL (Polish), PT (Portuguese), RO (Romanian), SK (Slovak), SL (Slovenian), SV (Swedish).

➤ What about the selection steps?

The post was published internally within the Commission, inter-institutionally, and brought to the attention of competition laureates.

In accordance with Article 29 of the Staff Regulations, applications from Commission officials, officials from other Institutions, and laureates of competitions have priority³. If these candidates do not best fit the requirements for the position, the Commission can recruit a temporary agent.

A selection panel will choose a limited number of candidates for interview, based on the CV and application form that they submitted. Due to the large volume of applications, we may receive, only candidates selected for the next step of the selection phase will be notified.

For operational reasons and in order to complete the selection procedure as quickly as possible in the interest of the candidates and of the institution, the selection procedure will be carried out in English and possibly in a second official language.

2. Recruitment

The candidate selected for recruitment will be requested to supply documentary evidence in support of the statements made in their application.

The successful candidate will be required to undergo a mandatory pre-recruitment medical check-up, carried out by the Commission.

➤ Type of contract and working conditions

The place of employment will be in Brussels.

In case the successful candidate is not an official or a competition laureate, they will be recruited as a temporary agent under Article 2(b)/2(d) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, in function group AST.

³ Officials from the Commission or other Institutions are invited to use the standard channels (Sysper or inter-institutional vacancy portal).

➤ Grade

The recruitment grade, as well as the step in that grade, will be determined in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2013\)9049 on policies for the engagement and use of temporary agents and with Commission Decision C\(2013\)8970 laying down the criteria applicable to classification in step on engagement.

The recruitment grade will be that of a new competition published or already planned in the field. If there is none, recruitment will be at the level of AST1. The maximum recruitment grade is AST3, which may be granted based on the assessment of the needs of the service, notably the nature of the profile sought, the level of responsibility to be exercised, or the labour market conditions for the profile in question, and the duration of the candidates' previous appropriate professional experience.

The duration of the 1st contract will be of 1 to 3 years. The contract might then be extended only once for a maximum of 2 years and in the interest of service. The duration of the extension will be defined according to the General Implementation Rules in force at that moment, in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2013\)9049 on policies for the engagement and use of temporary agents.

All new staff have to successfully complete a 9-month probationary period.

The pay of staff members consists of a basic salary supplemented with specific allowances, including, where applicable, expatriation and family allowances. The provisions guiding the calculation of these allowances can be consulted in the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants. As a member of staff of the European institutions, your pay is subject to a tax raised by those institutions.

The European Commission applies a policy of equal opportunities and non-discrimination in accordance with Article 1d of the Staff Regulations.
