

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Secretary

Directorate-General Trade and Economic Security (DG TRADE) of the European Commission

Selection reference: TRADE/COM/2026/1535

Domain: Support staff

Where: Unit TRADE.F2 – Economic security instruments 1-Foreign direct investment screening, outbound investment and anti-coercion, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b – administrative agent

Grade range: AST/SC1-2

Publication deadline: 10.08.2026 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

DG Trade and Economic Security is responsible for leading the EU's common commercial policy, one of the exclusive competences of the EU. Trade policy plays a critical role in enhancing the EU's economic competitiveness, shaping globalisation, and defending the EU from unfair trade practices and threats to its economic security.

Unit TRADE.F.2 (Economic security instruments 1- FDI Screening, outbound investment and anti-coercion) offers a dynamic and varied working environment, interacting with many different units in DG Trade and Economic Security and other Commission services, EU Delegations, Member States and EU businesses. The work provides an excellent overview of the new “security” instruments of trade policy and their geopolitical dimension. It also gives a unique overview of investment activity in sensitive sectors throughout the Union.

The Unit develops and implements EU rules and policies dealing with incoming and outbound investment and responses to coercion by third countries. The successful candidate will be contributing to the long-term prosperity, strategic autonomy and security of the European Union.

The unit's day-to-day work covers: Implementing the Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) Screening Framework (Regulation 2019/452) requiring extensive cooperation with Member States representatives and with other Commission services and the EEAS; Policy development on outbound EU investment and the implementation of the Anti-Coercion Instrument (Regulation 2023/2675).

In addition, the unit is also in charge of taking the necessary steps for the implementation of the revised EU screening regulation, which will enter into application in 17 January 2028.

WE PROPOSE

We propose a secretary position with varied responsibilities in a friendly and stimulating working environment in a dynamic unit.

The successful candidate will be providing administrative support to the unit's tasks. They will be supporting the Foreign Direct Investment screening team with case handling tasks (including the management of the manual of procedures, monitoring of the FDI Functional Mailbox, Temporary Repository submissions to and from Member States, FDI tracker and registration of FDI cases in ARES. Also monitoring F2 Secretariat and ACI Functional Mailbox and providing support with organising Outbound expert group meetings and managing contacts with the group.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a proactive team member, able to work independently and ensure respect for applicable administrative procedures and deadlines as well as the necessary coordination with Expert Groups, while assisting the responsible policy officers.

Work experience in the EU institutions and a familiarity with working methods is an advantage.

We are seeking a well-structured and dynamic colleague with secretarial experience, and very good coordination, administrative and inter-personal skills. S/he should have very good organisational skills, a strong sense of responsibility and the ability to deal with sensitive/confidential information. The ideal candidate should be familiar with Commission IT tools (Decide, ARES, MIPS, SYSPER, BASIS, SharePoint etc.) and possess a very good command of spoken and written English. Familiarity with EU trade policy is an advantage.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV
2. completed application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to TRADE-F2-SEC@ec.europa.eu indicating the selection reference TRADE/COM/2026/1535 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.

➤ What about the selection steps?

The post was published internally within the Commission, inter-institutionally, and brought to the attention of competition laureates.

In accordance with Article 29 of the Staff Regulations, applications from Commission officials, officials from other Institutions, and laureates of competitions have priority³. If these candidates do not best fit the requirements for the position, the Commission can recruit a temporary agent.

For temporary agents under Article 2(a) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, the post is published directly on the EPSO website, without mandatory prior internal publication.

A selection panel will choose a limited number of candidates for interview, based on the CV and application form that they submitted. Due to the large volume of applications, we may receive, only candidates selected for the next step of the selection phase will be notified.

For operational reasons and in order to complete the selection procedure as quickly as possible in the interest of the candidates and of the institution, the selection procedure will be carried out in English and possibly in another language.

2. Recruitment

The candidate selected for recruitment will be requested to supply documentary evidence in support of the statements made in their application.

The successful candidate will be required to undergo a mandatory pre-recruitment medical check-up, carried out by the Commission.

➤ Type of contract and working conditions

The place of employment will be Brussels.

In case the successful candidate is not an official or a competition laureate, they will be recruited as a temporary agent under Article 2(b) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, in function groups AST/SC.

³ Officials from the Commission or other Institutions are invited to use the standard channels (Sysper or inter-institutional vacancy portal).

➤ Grade

The recruitment grade, as well as the step in that grade, will be determined in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2025\)4716 on policies for the engagement and use of temporary agents and with Commission Decision C\(2013\)8970 laying down the criteria applicable to classification in step on engagement.

The recruitment grade will be calculated based on the qualifications and the number of years of professional experience, according to Art. 13 of the Commission Decision C(2025)4716. Higher grades may be granted exceptionally.

The duration of the 1st contract will be up to 4 years. The contract might then be extended only once for a maximum of 2 years and in the interest of service, in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2025\)4716 on policies for the engagement and use of temporary agents.

All new staff have to successfully complete a 9-month probationary period.

The pay of staff members consists of a basic salary supplemented with specific allowances, including, where applicable, expatriation and family allowances. The provisions guiding the calculation of these allowances can be consulted in the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants. As a member of staff of the European institutions, your pay is subject to a tax raised by those institutions.

The European Commission applies a policy of equal opportunities and non-discrimination in accordance with Article 1d of the Staff Regulations.
